TESTIMONY CLOSED IN SHERMAN ARSON CASE ON THURSDAY

J. B. McCASLAND ON TRIAL ON CHARGE OF ARSON IN COURTHOUSE BURNING

AUSTIN, June 4.—(P)—Testimony was concluded in short order in district court here today in the arson trial of J. B. McCasland, 19, charged with participation in the burning of the courthouse at Sherman, May 9, 1930.

The state and defense used only one witness each in rebuttal today. The state presented one rebuttal witness yesterday. Immediately after completion of testimony, J. L. Moore, district judge, read his charge to the jury and attorneys arguments started. The judge charged the jury on the law regarding an alibi. The defense had endeavored to prove an alibi.

Attorneys said they expected the case to be left to the jury late today. This is the first trial issue from the acts of violence at Sherman where a mob, balked in its efforts to lynch the negro attacker of a white woman, set fire to the courthouse. Negro houses and stores were destroyed and state houses were destroyed and state

BLOOMING GROVE BANK ORGANIZED; DIRECTORS NAMED

NEW INSTITUTION WILL BE KNOWN AS FIRST NA- TIONAL BANK

BLOOMING GROVE, June 4.—(Special to the Daily Sun)—Organization of the First National Bank of Blooming Grove with a capital stock of $25,000 and surplus of $12,500, fully paid, was announced here shortly after noon Thursday. A meeting of the board of directors was held Thursday afternoon to name officers for the new institution.

The complete list of currency at Washington has been wired that all requirements have been met and application made for a new charter for the bank, and it is expected that the federal reply will be received within a short time, since the request bears the recommendation and approval of R. H. Collier, chief national bank examiner for this area.

The new bank will be opened in the quarters of the old Citizens' National Bank which was closed a few days ago by order of the board of directors. The new institution will take over the assets of the Citizens' National.

Organization of the new bank was perfected following a series of conferences between Blooming Grove citizens, Corsicana bankers and members of the banking department including J. R. H. Collier, Bryan Horton and Ernest Lamb.

The directors of the new bank are: L. I. Griffin, C. L. Tillman, J. D. George, T. W. George, Jr., C. T. Idlett, J. L. Dorsey and P. V. Archer.

Former Inmate Insane Asylum
Slayer of Three

SEDALIA, Mo., June 4.—(P)—Three persons were dead today and two others were wounded as the result of a shooting at Sedalia, Mo., today. The shooting was the result of a fight between a man and a woman. The man was a former inmate of an insane asylum and had killed three people.

Jury Decides One Toe Worth $50,000 To This Dancer

WASHINGTON, June 4.—(P)—One toe is worth $50,000 to Alberto K. Ferreyros, professional dancer.

A jury awarded that sum to the dancer in a suit against the Fox Theaters corporation. The dancer lost the second toe of the left foot when it was caught in moving stage equipment. The defendant showed a motion picture of Ferreyros dancing ten months after the injury, but the plaintiff claimed he was unable to do a whirl dance for which he was famous after the injury.

FORT WORTH MAN BEATEN, ROBBED EARLY THURSDAY

HAD PREVIOUSLY RECEIVED THREATENING LETTER, HE TOLD POLICE

FORT WORTH, June 4.—(P)—Three men bound, gagged, beat and robbed John Deering, 77, then set fire to his house here early today. The attack followed receipt of a threatening letter recently in which Deering was warned he would be "smoked out."

Deering was awakened at 3:30 o'clock by a knock at his door. He called: "Come in." Three men entered and ordered him to light the lamp and dress. When he had complied, Deering was bound hand and foot with twine. Then the men began a search of the house.

By twisting and wrenching with his hands, Deering was able to free himself and cut the fetters about his legs just as his assailants returned. They beat him on the chest and shoulders, took $16 from him and put adhesive tape over his mouth. One remarked that they intended to take him away while another said they would burn him. In leaving the men set fire to the house, which was badly damaged.

Floyd McCain, neighbor, was returning home and saw the house ablaze. He awakened Leslie Car-

BANKRUPTCY ALLEGED FACE MORE THAN HALF OPERATORS MID-CONTINENT OIL AREA

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 4.—(P)—Oil men viewed a gloomy picture of conditions in the industry today following publication of a report here that recent price reductions coupled with general conditions shortly would force bankruptcy of more than half the Mid-Continent oil operators.

The outlook was not aided as the report indicated, by the prospect of a world-wide shortage of oil at the price of approximately 25,000,000 barrels of Oklahoma which emergency measure Secretary of the Interior Wilbur was quoted as approving. In late years a national shortage of oil was feared and it was expected that if formal application for a temporary shutdown was made, a "satisfactory settlement" probably could be made. He had been appealed to by E. B. Reiser, president of the American Petroleum

LIFE OF ADVENTURE AND ROMANCE ENDED IN DEATH OF JORDAN LAWRENCE MOTT

LOS ANGELES, June 4.—(P)—A life of strange adventure and romance leading half way around the world at the price of a fortune of $25,000,000, has ended with the death of Major Jordan Lawrence Mott, 50, once New York's "millionaire reporter." In late years a national shortage of oil was feared and it was expected that if formal application for a temporary shutdown was made, a "satisfactory settlement" probably could be made. He had been appealed to by E. B. Reiser, president of the American Petroleum

ONE DEAD, ANOTHER WOUNDED IN BATTLE AT MOUNDS, OKLA.

CITIZENS AID IN KILLING AND CAPTURING BANK ROBBERS THURSDAY

MOUNDS, Okla., June 4.—(P)—Guns of a citizens' posse stopped two robbers in their flight from the Bank of Mounds shortly after 10 a. m. today. One robber was killed and the other wounded.

The robbers were identified as Frank Carver, 34, and Tom Carver, 40, brothers. Frank was killed at the steering wheel of an automobile in which the pair sought to escape after emerging from the bank with $500 in loot. Tom was wounded and he ran after jumping from the car.

Creek county officers said Tom Carver told them he and his brother had stolen the car at Sapulpa and had planned to rob a bank at Jenks after raiding the Mounds institution.

The two men, aroused suspicions of townsmen when they failed to reappear after entering the bank of R. F. Crowder, town marshal, hurriedly gathered a posse.

As the robbers emerged from the bank, they forced Frank Crum, cashier, and H. C. Crews, assistant cashier, ahead of them as shields against the bullets of the posse which lay in wait. However, members of the posse were so stationed that they were able to fire on the robbers without hitting the bankers.

The loot was recovered. It was the second robbery at the bank within a few weeks. About a month ago a lone robber obtained nearly $700. Crum said the robbers apparently planned to kidnap him and Crews but that the driver of the car was shot before the employees entered the car.

Billy Smoot, another bank employee, was locked in the vault when Crum and Crews were marched out.

IN MIDST OF CATHOLIC CRISIS

In the breach between the Italian government and the Vatican in Rome stand these four leaders of State and the Church. A series of bombings, threats and general violence participated in by Fascists and Catholics has brought relations between Mussolini (upper right) and Pope Pius (upper left) to a strained point. American Ambassador John W. Garrett to Rome (lower left) entered the situation by intervening in the Italian government's closing of playgrounds operated in Rome by the American Knights of Columbus. Cardinal Pacelli (lower right), Papal Secretary of State, represents the Vatican in its relations with Mussolini's government.

MRS. J. H. WOODS FOLLOWS HUSBAND IN DEATH WEDNESDAY

FUNERAL SERVICES WILL BE HELD FROM FAMILY HOME THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Mrs. Betty Woods, aged 76 years, pioneer resident of Corsicana and Navarro county, wife of the late James H. Woods, who died at her home, 504 West Second avenue, Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock, will be held from the family residence Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with interment in Oakwood cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Bergin, pastor of the First Methodist church.

CONFLICT BETWEEN CHURCH AND STATE STILL STIRS ITALY

CORPUS CHRISTI CELEBRATIONS ARE HELD WITHIN CHURCH WALLS

ROME, June 4.—(P)—Pope Pius spent an hour and a half today discussing all phases of the crisis between the Holy See and the Italian government with the Marquese Pacelli, his attorney, who performed important work in negotiations which brought about the Lateran treaty. The Papal nuncio also took part in the conference and when it was over it was disclosed that the Pontiff had delivered a second note to the Italian foreign office, presumably a strong protest against what he considered violation of the concordat between Rome and the Vatican by dissolution of Catholic laymen's clubs.

This note, it was learned, was delivered Monday or Tuesday afternoon.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with interment in Oakwood cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Bergin, pastor of the First Methodist church.

MOTION FILED FOR NEW TRIAL IN CASE CURRIE CALDWELL

VERDICT CLAIMED "WHOLLY UNSUPPORTED BY EVIDENCE IN THE CASE"

Currie Caldwell, who was found guilty in the Thirteenth judicial district court Wednesday afternoon by a jury and given twelve years in the penitentiary, filed a motion for a new trial in the district clerk's office shortly after noon Thursday.

Caldwell's contention was the outgrowth of the kidnapping of Robert Corf last December. He was tried on an indictment for alleged assault of a person while masked or in disguise. The jury was out only one hour and five minutes Wednesday afternoon before returning its verdict.

The motion for a new trial set out that the twelve year verdict was "wholly unsupported by the evidence in the case and contrary thereto;" that the court erred in failing and refusing to grant the submission of certain special charges to the jury; and that trial judge, Hawkins Scarborough, during a recess, went in jury room and talked with members of jury or others; and also that certain remarks of the court during the testimony of Charles R. Hassel about whom he (Hassel) left Tyler with were "prejudicial" to the defendant's case.

An amended motion for a new trial will be submitted by Judge Scarborough later in an effort to get the verdict set aside, the formal motion filed Thursday afternoon indicated.

COTTON SALE CALLED OFF CAIRO, Egypt, June 4.—(P)—The American firm of Clayton, Anderson & company has broken off negotiations with the Egyptian government for the purchase of a large quantity of government cotton. The firm refused to agree to conditions regulating the sale.

I. C. COMMISSION READY TO SUBMIT BUS AND TRUCK REGULATION TO CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, June 4.—(P)—The Interstate commerce commission has completed a two-year study of the nation's bus and truck transportation question and plans to submit recommendations on its findings to the next congress.

Before the final report is drafted, however, the commission will have laid before it recommendations of the study by its examiners on the basis of evidence placed before them by organizations, railroads and persons during the hearings. The examiners' study will have to be adopted, rejected or changed after arguments are submitted to the commission.

The commission now has authority to regulate interstate bus and truck transportation and has not permitted to engage in highway traffic directly.

Two years ago the commission after being told by railroads that the truck and bus systems were making serious inroads into their freight and passenger business, initiated the proceedings with a view to trying to develop coordination between highway and railroad transportation.

Under the direction of Commissioner Brainard, Examiners Flynn and Stephan held hearings in every section of the country. Railroad employees and executives, bus and truck operators, civic organizations and state regulatory bodies were heard.

At the close of the hearings here recently, all parties were given until June 1 to file briefs. During the last few days the National Citizens' Transportation Association, the Association of Railway Labor Executives, a railway union organization; the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, the Railway Express agency, motor bus and truck organizations and many railroads sent briefs.

The commission now has authority to regulate interstate bus and truck transportation and has not permitted to engage in highway traffic directly.

Chicagoan Is Having Trouble In Getting Wife

CHICAGO, June 4.—(P)—The cotter of the marriage license bureau will grow considerably if Bezenic Karezbaum, 72, keeps this up.

Monday he appeared at the bureau, slipped two dollars down on the counter and got the state's permission to marry Pearl Goldman, 60, a widow. Yesterday Karezbaum was back.

"And what now?" asked the clerk.

"Another license, please," said Karezbaum as he dug down in his pockets for another license. This time to marry another widow, Eva Chubin, 58.

"What's the matter with your first girl?" inquired the surprised clerk.

"She," said Karezbaum, "changed her mind."

GLOOMY OUTLOOK IN OIL INDUSTRY FOLLOWING CUTS

PRORATION VERY WOBBLY AND BIG FIELD EXPECTED MAKE GREATER OUTPUT

DALLAS, June 5.—(P)—Little cheer was felt by oil men today as they contemplated difficulties the East Texas fields are causing in production and marketing. Oil cuts had followed one another in disconcerting frequency. Proration, if not actually broken down, was extremely wobbly, and, to add to the gloom, there was abundant reason for believing the prolific new field, already sending a huge flood of oil into commerce, was to produce yet other records.

Robert Penn, addressing the production division of the American Petroleum Institute here yesterday, urged that a gigantic corporation be formed to take over independently owned properties in the field, the who area to be operated as a unit through agreements between unified independent producers and the major oil companies.

R. L. ROBERTSON VICTIM AUTOMOBILE CRASH NEAR LORENA

WAS ADJUTANT GENERAL UNDER GOV. DAN MOODY; GOING TO WACO

WACO, June 4.—(P)—Robert L. Robertson, 44, adjutant general during the administration of Governor Dan Moody, was killed in an automobile accident at Lorena, 20 miles south of here, about midnight.

Robertson's automobile had gone off the highway and had struck an electric power line tower. His neck was broken.

An ambulance brought the body to Waco. Belief was expressed here that Robertson either fell asleep or that the machine skidded off an embankment in passing another automobile. So far as had been learned, there was no one with him at the time of the wreck and there were no witnesses.

Gen. Robertson's body was placed in an ambulance for an overland journey to Gonzales at noon. The funeral will be held at his former home Saturday at 2 p. m. The body was accompanied by Adjutant General William W. Sterlino and a military escort.

GASOLINE PRICES HERE REACHED NEW LOW ON THURSDAY

Corsicana motorists found themselves able to enjoy the benefits of a gasoline war as prices at every station in the city posted a price of 11 cents per gallon for standard grade white gasoline, with ethylized products three cents higher at 14, the lowest gasoline prices in more than a decade.

The price cutting was started Tuesday afternoon when Sinclair stations dropped the price to 11 cents. They were followed Wednesday afternoon by Gulf and Magnolia stations, and Thursday the remainder of the companies followed suit. Among those meeting the price Thursday were Texaco, Humble, Texas & Pacific, and Simms stations.

No reason has been assigned for the price cutting.

A few weeks ago prices dropped near the low record when prices of 14 and 17 cents were posted, but the record was smashed in the past few days by the new low scale.

New York Banker Died Suddenly in Home Last Night

OSTEYER BAY, N. Y., June 4.—(P)—Mortimer L. Schiff, banker, philanthropist, member of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and president of the Boy Scouts of America, died suddenly during the night of a heart attack. He would have been 54 years old tomorrow.

Following a day which included his usual visit to his office, an afternoon round of golf, and dinner with his family, he retired to his room. He was found dead in a lounge robe and seated in a chair.

TRAINMEN TO ELECT.

HOUSTON, June 4.—(P)—Election of 36 officers, including a president, was in order today at the triennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. In session here for about a month. Nine hundred and sixty-two delegates were present.

Completion of the elections was expected to require about three days. No opposition had appeared to the re-election of President J. E. Whitman.

PRICES OF EAST TEXAS CRUDE OIL THREATENED AGAIN

TEXAS COMPANY, IN MEETING MID-CONTINENT CUT, POSTS NO E. TEXAS PRICE

HOUSTON, June 3.—(P)—The Humble Oil and Refining company today announced it would discontinue posting prices for crude oil in the East Texas fields. At the same time, Humble cut the price reductions in Texas as put into effect yesterday by the Texas Company to meet mid-continent reductions begun by the Standard Oil Company and followed by other purchasers.

The Texas prices of yesterday, which became the Humble prices of today, carry a top of 37 cents per barrel for North Louisiana, North Texas, North Central Texas and Central Texas, 20 to 30 cents under the previous level. The same is the same as the new one issued by Standard, which quotes oil as low as 25 cents.

In the Gulf coast fields, Humble likewise followed Texas, abolishing the distinction between "A" and "B" grades and making "A" all grade. The highest Gulf coast price was cut from 91 cents to 60 cents and the low is now 44 cents. Humble's deviation this one point, however, making 45 cents, the highest listed and quoted at 55c. Gray county was listed at 24 to 30 cents, a decline in the top figure of 15 cents.

Carson and Hutchinson counties were reduced from 42 cents to a high of 27 cents and a low of 21 cents. Winkler, Crane, Upton, and Lea county, New Mexico, fell to 25 cents. Humble also posted Mirando at 44 cents, 16 cents off, and Pettus at 50 cents, 25 cents off.

Humble, like the Texas company, was charged with raising prices which its discontinue of East Texas postings would mean, but it was said unofficially it would mean competitive buying there. The action was further regarded in oil circles as "giving a spanking to that area for its failure to fully observe proration."

Price Cut Unanimous.—TULSA, June 3.—(P)—Adoption of the lowest prices for mid-continent crude oil since 1906 was made unanimous among the major company purchasers today as the Charter Oil Company and the Gulf Oil Company, the two largest, posted their reductions.

Other purchasers previously had followed the Standard Oil Company's lead, cutting prices from 18 to 30 cents a barrel, making the price sell for a range from 25 cents a barrel for low gravity oil to 37 cents a barrel for the top grade. In August 1906, a price of 27 cents a barrel was posted for 30-30.4 gravity oil.

The Charter company is a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and the Gulf Oil Company is a subsidiary of the Gulf Oil Corporation. The Standard is a Standard of Indiana subsidiary.

Belief that the low market will prove an aid in starting to better the country on the part of the president was expressed by Harry F. Sinclair, head of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation, who stopped here on his way to a meeting of the American Petroleum Institute directors at Dallas.

HOUSTON, June 3.—(P)—Prices of East Texas crude oil, 30 cents per barrel last week in a movement initiated by the Humble Oil and Refining Company, were further threatened today by action of the Texas Company.

The Texas Company yesterday met posted reductions in prices of mid-continent oil, lowered by the Standard Oil Company. The Texas Company Monday to the new East Texas price level and simultaneously announced it would not continue to post prices for East Texas crude.

President W. S. Farish of the Humble, in announcing lower prices for East Texas oil last week, cited the failure of proration in the field, which had been producing more than twice as much oil as the field daily as other major companies followed in lowering prices, the action was viewed as penalizing East Texas by comparison with other fields. Application of the new schedule to mid-continent oil put the various fields on a common level again.

The highest price now posted by the Texas Company for oil from North Louisiana, North Texas, North Central Texas and Central Texas is 37 cents per barrel, a decline of 20 cents in North Louisiana and Central Texas, and 20 cents in the other fields. The highest grade of Gulf Coast oil was reduced from 91 to 60 cents. Reductions in other areas varied. Winkler county crude being only 10 cents—25 cents per barrel instead of 35 cents.

Proration Suits.—Set For June 10.—AUSTIN, June 3.—(P)—The attorney general's department yesterday succeeded in having the suits to enjoin enforcement of oil proration orders set for hearing June 10 after a conference Monday between the governor, railroad commission and the attorney general's department at which it was agreed to seek speedy court action.

Suits set were filed by the Central Pipe Line Company, Inland Waterways, Inc., R. G. Melville and Lide-Ross Oil Corporation. There were also suits against the commission were filed yesterday. They were by the United States, Wainwright and W. A. Brown, oil companies; Jenkins, oil company; and the Consolidated Oil Company, Rock county, and R. E. Merritt, Gray county.

Hoover Petitioned For Embargo on Oil.—COFFEYVILLE, Kan., June 3.—(P)—Harold McCracken, county attorney from Coffeyville, the district, petitioned President Hoover today for an executive order placing an embargo against the importation of foreign oil.

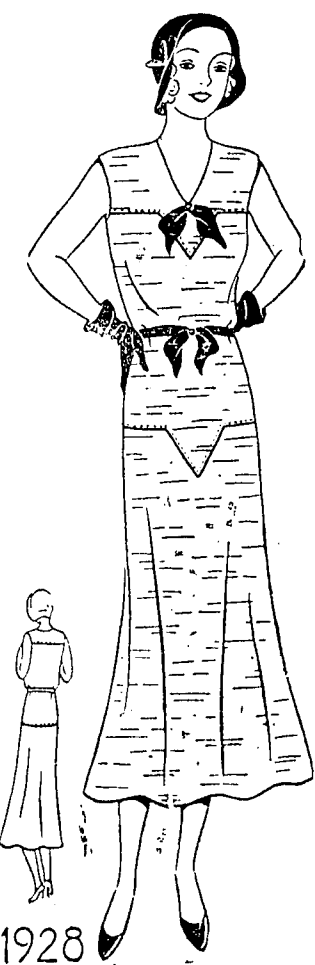

The president's chief of staff telegraphed the president is leaning to withhold such an embargo of barrels of this natural resource.

"It is my understanding that a presidential embargo is proper when made for the national defense. If you believe that you are without constitutional authority to create an embargo in times of peace by executive order, then I beg of you that a special session of congress be called for the principal purpose of protecting the American oil and any other industries facing ruin."

The Kansas congressman declared in his appeal to the president that by proration and self-sufficiency the oil industry is keeping American production within American consumption.

Pennsylvania Crude Cut.—PITTSBURGH, June 3.—(P)—Pennsylvania grade crude oil was reduced to the lowest price since August 13, 1915, today. Cuts of 25 and 15 cents a barrel were announced by leading purchasing agencies here.

NEW LOW LEVELS FOR SEASON WERE REACHED IN GRAIN

WITHDRAWAL FARM BOARD SUPPORT HELD CAUSE OF UNPRECEDENTED DROP

CHICAGO, June 3.—(P)—Wheat prices on American markets fell today to new low levels for the season on a report that the Federal Farm Board had withdrawn its support from the old crop.

June wheat, the last of the old crop futures, led the downturn with a 10 cent early drop at Duluth, 12-1/2 cents at Minneapolis and 3-1/4 cents at Chicago. All other deliveries, comprising the new 1931 crop, followed to new lows. At 11 o'clock July wheat in Chicago was selling at 57-1/2 off 13-4 from yesterday's close. September was off about a cent at 56-3/4 and December about the same at 60.

The market rallied after June deliveries had made extreme drops and responded quickly to buying. By 11:30 a. m. June had recovered 2-1/4 cents to 68. Cash markets were inactive most of the day, while traders watched the futures drop and waited for official word from the Federal Farm Board.

Corn and oats followed wheat to seasonal low records, July corn going to 44-1/2 and July oats to 25-7/8.

Drop Heavy at Minneapolis.—MINNEAPOLIS, June 3.—(P)—Wheat prices dropped 12-1/2 cents a bushel in an hour on the Minneapolis grain market today as offerings for the spot month found no buyers. The drastic slump was attributed to withdrawal of farm board agents from the market.

June wheat opened unchanged at 61-1/2 cents under No. 1. In addition to the schedules which became effective with their announcement, a duty of 15 cents per pound to become effective July 1, was announced on magazines.

Canada cannot afford to be unprotected against the competition of countries protected by high tariffs, Premier Bennett said. He added that his government stands or falls by its policy of protection to Canadian industry.

Anthracite, which was on the free list, is subjected to a tariff of 40 cents a ton under the new rates. Last year Canada imported $28,000,000 worth of this fuel, most of which came from the United States. The rate on bituminous coal was increased from 50 cents to 75 cents a ton. There is a drawback of 99 per cent on bituminous coal used for smelting. The rate on coke, which was on the free list, is fixed at $1 a ton. Chicago was increased to $7.50 a ton.

Oranges, of which Canada imports $10,000,000 worth a year, largely from the United States, and which were on the free list, are now subject to a tariff of 35 cents per cubic foot capacity of the container.

Three Classes Tariffs. Canadian tariffs are imposed under three classifications. British preference, under which low rates are extended to Great Britain and other members of the British commonwealth, intermediate, in which higher rates are imposed on imports from countries with which Canada has trade treaties and the general rate, which is

Former Missionary To Speak in Many Baptist Churches

E. L. Liddell, missionary of the Ellis-Corsicana Missionary Baptist association, announces that Rev. J. J. Cowser of Seminary Hill, for many years a missionary of the Southern Baptist convention in Brazil, will speak in a number of the churches in Ellis and Navarro counties during the week of June 8-14 inclusive.

Rev. Cowser will use a moving picture machine at all the night engagements with which he will show many interesting scenes and incidents from the mission fields. It is hoped the churches of the association will make use of this fine opportunity by attending these interesting lectures by one who knows the work and the field first hand. The general public is welcome and cordially invited.

Following is the places and dates of the lectures:

drawal of government support from the June wheat market. Chairman Stone of the board and George S. Milnor, president of the grain stabilization corporation, in Chicago, agreed on this action last night in a telephone conversation after a day of sizeable wheat shipments from Texas. At the board it was explained today that the grain stabilization corporation has promised to continue wheat purchases in June only until such a time as the arrival of new wheat became a factor in the market.

The farm board announced on March 23 that it would not authorize continued price stabilization after July 1, the beginning of the new crop year.

Stone declined to comment on today's developments, but it was said at the board's offices that the position taken was that the stabilization corporation could not purchase wheat to maintain the stabilized price at the expense of Kansas farmers who will begin harvesting and shipping next month. For this reason, the decision was reached to discontinue purchases now when the first of the heavy movement of new stocks appeared at the terminals.

Milnor has announced that wheat held by his agency will be sold at the stabilized price of about 85 cents. Should millers need additional old wheat they would be required to pay this price as it is believed the stabilization corporation now has in its possession virtually all of the prospective carryover on July 1.

If, however, sufficient new wheat is available the corporation would lose this opportunity to sell a portion of its huge surplus and probably suffer further losses as the result of its market operations.

A. P. I. OFFICIALS MAKING TOUR EAST TEXAS OIL FIELDS

EAST TEXAS CHAMBER OF FICERS, STATE SENATORS AND OTHERS IN PARTY

LONGVIEW, June 2.—(P)—A group of oil men, most of them directors of the American Petroleum Institute, toured the Lathrop pool of the East Texas oil field this morning in two large busses. They expressed much surprise at the Humble Oil company's camp and planned to go to Van for dinner before continuing back to Dallas, for the institute's production division general sessions opening tomorrow.

A group in attendance at the production division meeting in Dallas arrived here by train last night to join other directors reaching here at 10 a. m. today by train from St. Louis.

Included in the group were: W. T. Holliday, of the Standard Oil company of Ohio; Henry M. Dawes, of the Pure Oil company, brother of former Vice President Charles G. Dawes; J. A. Elkins, Houston, general counsel for the Pure Oil company; Roy B. Jones, Wichita, Falls, of the Parhandle Oil & Refining company; Bill McAfee, attorney for the Standard Oil company of Ohio; W. R. Boyd, Jr., executive vice-president of the American Petroleum Institute; Lacy Walker, secretary of the institute; W. M. O'Connor, of the Atlantic Refining company; S. A. Gulberson, independent operator of Los Angeles, Calif.; O. D. Donnel, of the Ohio Oil company; D. S. Bushnell, of the Northern Group Pipeline company; Robert R. Penn, Dallas, chairman of the Texas Central Proration advisory committee; Charles Roser, Longview, independent operator and chairman of the East Texas proration advisory committee.

DALLAS, June 2.—(P)—Officials of the American Petroleum Institute, division of production, were touring the prolific East Texas oil fields today, accompanied by officials of the East Texas

Chamber of Commerce, several state senators and other persons interested in the oil business. Meanwhile, another series of committee meetings was being held here.

The East Texas group was to meet at Arp, then make an automobile trip through the Joiner, Kilgore and Lathrop fields, finally ending the day at Tyler. Senator J. W. E. H. Beck of DeKalb will head the group of senators. The party will have as escort Carl Estes and Senator Thomas G. Pollard of Tyler, together with officials of the Chamber of Commerce of Tyler. Pollard said Senators Walter Woodward of Coleman, Walter Woodul of Houston, George Purl of Dallas, R. B. Cousins of Beaumont, John W. Hornsby of Austin, Pink Lubbok of Lubbock, Julian Greer of Athens, Nat Patton of Crockett, Margie Neal of Carthage and Edgar Thomason of Nacogdoches would be in the party.

District Court.—The Navarro county grand jury was still in session Wednesday morning.

The jury for the week was finally excused Wednesday.

Constable's Office.—The following arrests were reported by the constable's department Wednesday morning:

Beer, one; swindling with worthless checks, 2; drunkenness, 3; affray, 2.

Constable C. P. Brooks reported his easiest arrest as occurring Sunday. He stated that he was taking a Sunday afternoon nap when a man climbed into his automobile parked in front of his home. He said that some children discovered the strange man and it was reported to him. The constable attempted to rouse the sleeping man and was told not to start any "rough stuff." The man pushed the man's legs around, started his car and drove to the county jail where he was locked up.

On Monday morning, the prisoner did not recall having gotten into the law's automobile, or where he was arrested. Mr. Brooks reported that this arrest was the easiest he had ever experienced. The man was charged with drunkenness.

FRIENDSHIP GOES OUT WINDOW DURING INTERNATIONAL GO

NEW YORK, June 4.—(P)—International friendship between Italy and the United States has received little if any impetus through the series of boxing bouts between the amateurs of the two nations.

The first time the teams clashed in Madison Square Garden, each won four bouts, a result that was satisfactory to both sides. Last night they met again and after one of the stormiest scenes the big battle pit ever has seen, the United States came out ahead, five bouts to two, but with the friendly feelings between the ring rivals sadly battered.

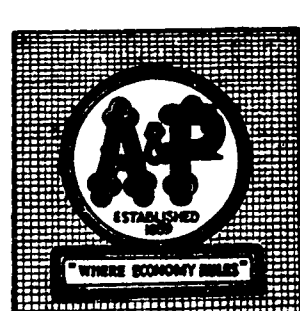

The first bout went against the Italian flyweight, Edelweis Rodriguez, and a storm of protest arose from spectators and from the visiting team, although the decision appeared fair to impartial ringside observers. The crowd of 8,000 protested loudly and the indignant Italian boxers marched from the arena.

The spectators took up the battle and several fist fights broke out in the arena. Ringsiders were subjected to a bombardment of everything throwable, including a couple of small knives. Police finally restored order and after a half hour's delay the Italian boxers were persuaded to continue. But Joe Jones, the referee who, with two judges, had voted the decision over Rodriguez to Louis Salica of New York, insisted on dropping out of the picture.

Vincenzo Dali Oporto promptly evened the series by defeating Flavio de Eonis, Boston 115-pounder, but the next four Americans recorded wins to clinch the victory.

FIRE DAMAGES ROOF.—A small roof fire with damage amounting to about $10 caused a run for the fire department about 6 p. m. Wednesday to 804 East Thomas avenue. The house was owned by J. P. Stout, and occupied by Kathleen Cary.

Cut flowers of every description from her lovely garden, were artistically arranged in every available place. A short devotional was led by Mrs. Massey, after which a three course luncheon was served.

The first course consisted of Strawberry cocktail and the guests drank toasts to Mrs. Moore, one of the members who is moving away. The second course consisted of chicken and vegetable plate, and the third mint ice cream. An interesting thing about the luncheon was that the hostess raised everything on the place except the strawberries.

Quite a bit of hilarity was noticeable during the entire time caused by a little game that started upon arrival, each guest was given a sack containing twenty beans, and the guests instructed to call each one by her given name. Failure to do so entailed the forfeit of a bean to the one who was not called by correct name. A prize was given Mrs. Massey for getting the most beans, which was a lovely basket of sweet peas. Such an enjoyable time was had that the guests prolonged their stay till late in the evening. Those present were Mrs. Walter McDaniel, Mrs. Laura Lansford, Mrs. A. FIGHT ENLIVENS TRIAL NEGRO IN COURT AMARILLO

AMARILLO, June 4.—P.—A fight between Clem Calhoun, former district attorney of Bowie and Abilene, and E. T. Miller, defense attorney, enlivened the trial of Will Moore, negro hotel porter, charged with the fatal shooting of Mont Moore, New Mexico cowboy.

The clash came during the cross-examination of Bill Anderson, an Abilene attorney who testified for the defense. Reference to bribery was made in the questioning directed by District Attorney Edward W. Tompkins. Miller charged and Calhoun denied.

In the argument, Miller said the accusation was a lie. At least one blow was landed before officers intervened.

The state began rebuttal testimony after Anderson left the stand.

Storm Brewing Over Ban On Professor and Nurse Refusal of Citizenship Papers to Pair Who Will Not Bear Arms in Time of War to Precipitate Battle in Congress on Laws

Refused citizenship by the United States Supreme Court by the close vote of 5 to 4, after the Federal Court of Appeals had granted full citizenship privileges in overruling two lower courts, Professor Douglas Clyde Mackintosh, of Yale University, and Miss Marie Averill, New York nurse, are the center of a controversy which Congress and President Hoover probably will be called upon to settle. While both Professor Mackintosh and Nurse Averill served during the World War, it was due to their disinclination to bear arms for the United States in the event of war that forced the highest U. S. tribunal to bar them as citizens. The education said he would fight for America if the cause was just, while the nurse was definitely opposed to shouldering arms because of religious scruples. The latest victims of the alien naturalization law are shown above with Mme. Rosika Schwimmer, another prominent person denied citizenship because of her conscientious objections to war.

ARGUMENTS START IN TRIAL BANKERS FT. WORTH COURT

FT. WORTH, June 4.—P.—A. L. Baker, defendant with W. L. Smallwood and C. C. Johnson, who were charged with misappropriation of funds, testified in federal court today that small wood and Johnson, former officials of the defunct Texas National Bank, were aware that accounts were being purloined.

Baker said Smallwood instructed that the first improper charge be made.

The defense rested and arguments began after Smallwood took the stand and denied the charges against him.

The government rested with the testimony of Baker, who previously had pleaded guilty to charges similar to those upon which the three bank officials now are being tried. The indictment, which also named W. B. Samuels, president of the bank, charged misappropriation of funds, false entry and falsification of reports to the Federal Reserve bank.

We all knew a shortage existed, Baker declared.

Baker and Johnson sometimes approved the checks making the improper charges against accounts in which the shortage was carried.

Baker said, however, that so far as he knew, neither of the two profited from the illegal transactions.

The man was fully clothed but the woman was only in night dress when they were discovered by police. An anonymous informant had telephoned police that a man and woman were in a house in bad shape at the address.

Police were working an attack on the house during the morning when they discovered the man and woman were in a house in bad shape at the address.

YOU CAN'T WEAR PRICES

YOU'D THINK a lot of men were planning to wear price tickets instead of clothes -- they pay so much attention to numbers.

REMEMBER, $20 doesn't wear as long, doesn't hold a press as well as a fine worsted fabric at $25.

CONSIDER quality first and trust a name that stands for 100 per cent satisfaction.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX is the name.

TWO TROUSER, Dixie Weave worsted suits at $25 are the clothes.

CORSICANA, TEX., JUNE 5, 1931.

ANTI-POLITICAL PAR-SONS.

At a time when many persons are more than ever convinced that religionists interests lie in civil affairs
and power rather than in spiritual things the clearly stated opinions of prominent clergymen now discussing the question are particularly forceful and invigorating. They touch the very roots of the matter, reaffirming vigorously and unequivocally what are historical principles as well as sensible views.

Asserting that the separation of state and church is being neglected, they do not hesitate to name specific examples of what they as ministers consider uncalled for and dangerous meddling.
The political activities of some churches, as churches,
in behalf of prohibition and Sunday blue laws, are instances as outstanding examples. Coming from leading clergymen representing several denominations, this criticism has especial point.

Roger Williams was a man who defended the individual conscience against any aggression by the power of the state and who founded a commonwealth
in which absolute religious liberty was combined with civil democracy. In this he was inspired by the belief that the spiritual side of man must be free from any compulsion and that the church is not a penal reformatory.

The world has succeeded fairly well in freeing the church from domination by the state, only to face the task of freeing the state from domination by the church. Religious groups, which from excess of zeal,
make it their business to attempt ordering the civil and temporal affairs of the world after their own ideas violate the fundamental principles of the democratic form of government.

FREIGHT RATES.

With prices of virtually all commodities tumbling down from pre-depression heights the railroads do the unexpected by asking for higher freight rates. They back up their demands with the dual argument that increased rates are necessary to give them a fair return on their capital investment and essential to the restoration of prosperity.

Their proposal goes contrary to the whole trend of the day, which is toward lower rather than higher costs. So the puzzled layman may pertinently inquire into the reasoning
back of the arguments.

Here it is. The key to the contention lies in the fact that in normal times the railroads are one of the country's largest customers;
that, for example, they purchase 23 per cent of the soft coal, 19 per cent of the fuel oil, 17 per cent of the iron and steel and 20 per cent of the lumber.

Now practically out of the market, they would be put back with both feet, they argue, by a rate boost, thereby stimulating production and employment.

There is contained in the demand of the railroads a faint hint of wage cuts should higher rates be refused them. Perhaps that is but an empty threat, a dramatic gesture. At any rate the interstate commerce commission will have something to say about it.

Which is the lesser evil,
higher freight rates, which might injure the farmers and manufacturers and surely would increase prices,
or lower wages for hundreds of thousands of railroad employees? Can the economists answer this one?

JUST FOLKS

THE BUTTERFLY.
The other day before my eyes
There I saw a group of butterflies.

And as from flower to flower
They flew, I saw them come to do.
Behold the fertile pollen far
I thought how strange God's mar-vels are.

Fragile and lovely to the eye
Behold the wondrous butterfly.
Gay in her service of the flowers
Surpassing any work of ours.

Never I saw from brain of man
Could come to delicate a plan.
Only from God's design could spring
So help I and so fair a thing.

EDITORIAL EXPRESSIONS

"Herbert Hoover, M. E.
Well-earned letters significantly his competence as a mining engineer. But they might signify also, if there were such a degree, Master of Evasion. Avoidance of issues is with him an instinct and a highly developed gift.

"Prohibition, farm relief,
tariff, drought aid, industrial depression, unemployment—which of these problems has been met by the Administration with candor and courage, without Wick-ershamming delay and indecision?

"But yesterday brought the most conspicuous and astonishing exemplification of this policy. For transparent evasiveness and complete irrelevancy the President's address to the International Chamber of Commerce covention was in a class by itself."—Philadelphia Record (Ind.-Dem.)

"In defending the Federal Farm Board at Atlantic City, Chairman Stone made a statement that should instantly cause considerable consternation in the ranks of the G. O. P. He was arguing that if the Farm Board legislation is 'class legislation' in being designated for the benefit of a particular group, then there is ample precedent for it in Federal legislation previously enacted for other groups.

"* * * In his statement that we have the tariff for industry' he squarely challenged the basic position of the Hoover Administration that the Smoot-Hawley tariff bill was enacted for the peculiar benefit of agriculture. * * * When the chairman of Mr. Hoover's Farm Board badly states that the tariff is class legislation for industry, it ought to give the Republican tariff defenders
in the agrarian reaches quite a jolt, and cause complications in the national command of the G. O. P."
—Baltimore Sun (Dem.)

"When business, whom the republican party pretends to serve, repudiates
the Smoot-Hawley tariff and demands its modification as a means of stimulating trade, the high tariff group in congress is left without a leg to stand on. No longer can it be contended that giving special interests a monopoly on the American market creates general prosperity."—Houston Post-Dispatch (Ind.)

"To be sure, Jim Watson, republican leader in the senate, is attacking the Barnes-Atterbury-Shell group,
and trying to lead off their warnings. But Jim also pooh-poohed the warnings
a year ago when the tariff bill passed. He was the boy who said it would restore prosperity in sixty days.
We fear Jim will have a hard time next December explaining that one to the senate."—N. Y. World-Telegram (Ind.)

"Thus far our official position has been the depression and disasters in other countries are a good excuse or political alibi, for their having occurred here also.
President Hoover has more than once tried to reassure his fellow-countrymen by telling them that they are suffering only what has befallen all other people. But when other people come and ask us to reason together with them in order to see if means cannot be devised for aiding the world to its feet again, we ostentatiously decline to have part or lot with them."—

address delivered before the dread of thousands of railroad bankers who have come to the United States

Helping Home Industry

ference of the International Chamber of Commerce, told his audience that our standard of living must be maintained at all costs. * * * Mr.
Mellon surely realizes that the five or six millions of workers estimated to be still without employment in the United States and other millions who are working part time or receiving lower wages will not be able to maintain their former living standards and assist business recovery by buying as usual. * * *

"Rigid living standards will not keep a man from starving, if nobody finds it profitable to employ him.
Exalted ideals of what constitute adequate living conditions likewise will not save a nation from defeat
in the competitive struggle for world trade if others have less sacrosanct standards have something equally good to offer at lower prices. * * * The United States has not yet been willing to face this problem,
and a majority of our people probably think with Mr.
Mellon that if we shout persistently for the things that our standards demand, the means to buy them can be conjured out of a void."—
N. Y. Journal of Commerce (Ind.)

"Of what avail will it be to assure other nations that they may live in peace under their own vine and fig tree, so long as the United States does its best to prevent them from selling their products in our markets?"
—N. Y. Times (Ind.)

"If the country is to get out of the economic morass
in which it finds itself, it is essential to mobilize the intelligence of our own people and of the world for adjustment of such matters.
And one way to do that is to find out what the international business community, as represented in the International Chamber of Commerce, thinks about them. Surely, if we wait for Mr. Hoover to do anything, his recent performance gives every reason to suspect that he shall all be dead before he budges out of his cyclone cellar, where presumably he sits praying
for some kind of miracle
to rescue him from his political woes." Baltimore Sun (Dem.)

A local woman motorist
put out her hand properly
and made a perfect left turn at a downtown intersection, Wednesday, but sped away before her identity was learned.

Hoover, it is said, is not opposed to permitting Vice President Curtis to go down in defeat with him in 1932.

Men who don't pay as

KEEP TO THE RIGHT.

There is one traffic rule
that is uniform and country over. It is "Keep to the right." And of all traffic regulations it comes nearest to being universally violated.

Two-lane highways make it important that each vehicle keep to the right and use only its rightful share of the road. So essential to traffic safety is the observance of this rule that most states enforce it more rigidly than any other highway regulation. In most states it is a serious offense to pass another vehicle on the crest of a hill or on a blind curve or to travel on the left side of the road at such points.

Crusades concurrently in progress in several states have as their objective the breaking of the habit, so common everywhere, of slow drivers 'hogging the road.' There is a saying among motorists to the effect that "the slow driver requires the most right-of-way."

Quite as many accidents
are caused by slow drivers
as by speed maniacs, and the snail's pace operator
who also hogs the road constitutes a still greater traffic hazard.

Parallel and multi-lane highways do not solve the problem. Where there are two lanes for each traffic stream, there are slow-moving vehicles which persist in monopolizing two lanes by straddling the dividing line.
All the world a highway
would not keep some drivers out of the way of other traffic.

RELIEF FOR VETERANS.

When the soldiers' bonus was under consideration at the last session of congress, administrative officials, foreseeing that it would upset government financing and disturb the world bond market, deprecated it. Bonus advocates contended that the stimulation it would give to business would more than counteract this ill effect.

Both sides were partly right and partly wrong. The results and consequences
were neither as salutary
nor as evil as predicted.

Business was stimulated only temporarily and then not sufficiently to aid the unemployed. Financial markets were not seriously affected and it looks as if the federal government would eventually pull through.

In the final analysis about the only permanent heritages from extension of the adjusted compensation loans are a larger public debt, a larger federal treasury deficit and some millions of veterans' loans that must be repaid if future benefits

from the adjusted compensation are not to be forfeited.

Was this wise policy on the part of veterans and congress? Have not able-bodied and self-supporting ex-soldiers taken money sorely needed by their disabled buddies and their dependents?

Veterans are asking a billion dollars from the government for the next fiscal year. Somebody must go without, for the country cannot carry such a burden.
Who will it be, the dependents or independents?

A TEST OF PATIENCE

To the uninitiated, a flower garden is a thing of beauty and joy forever. The gardener, according to general belief, is a person who merely plants things and watches them grow. Poets wax eloquent over graceful stalks and smiling blooms
and gay colors, and painters have striven to catch the tints that nature provides so lavishly.

Only the practical gardener knows the sordid story that every garden might unfold, a story of crime, of selfishness, of chronic ailments, of starvation, of poverty and what the sociologists call "a-morality."

The gardener begins as an artist. One season's experience makes him a diag-nostician, surgeon, general practitioner, dietitian, epidemiologist, sanitary engineer, probation officer,
watchman, water-carrier and day laborer. If he makes a garden the next spring he proves conclusively that he is also a philosopher.

Flowers suffer many of the trials and tribulations that afflict humanity. There is in flower nature cannibalism, greed, selfishness and weakness. Flowers have their deadly enemies in diseases and insects. And they require more pamper-ing and nursing than a child. Tending a flower garden, therefore, teaches man many things about himself and his kind.

An old-timer, slightly the worse for wear, was discovered in a downtown lunch
the other evening trying to work out a cross-word puzle on a waffle.

In view of the American craze for speed in everything, however inconsequential, it is strange no one has thought to try golf on roller skates.

Biology item: Deems Taylor, American composer of operas, was born on West Seventeenth street, New York, opposite the Weber
piano factory.

Life is too short to waste
time hating everybody.

PINCHOT BOOMED
FOR 'REPUBLICAN PARTY NOMINEE

WASHINGTON, June 1.—(P)— Sentiment among Western senators over the prospects of Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania becoming a candidate for the republican presidential nomination
next year is being sounded out
by some of his friends here.

While the senators receiving the overtures have declined to divulge the names of the Pennsylv-
anian's friends, the approaches precipitated much conjecture at the capitol. The senators would not indicate their attitudes or discuss the matter openly.

Previously speculation involving Pinchot and other republican independents has been circulated.
This, however, appears to be the first indication that a candidate
may enter the field against President Hoover since former Senator Francis of Maryland, announced his candidacy.

Republican independents from Northwestern states, the most approved a number of the administration's policies. Leaders of this group have been urged by Senator Brookhart of Iowa to enter the republican presidential race in 1932. He also has suggested Pin-chot as a possible candidate.

None of the other possible republican "progressive" candidates named by Brookhart has indicated his plans. Senator Borah of Idaho expects to return home next week without disclosing his intentions. Senators Johnson of California and Norris of Nebraska,
who have been unable to agree with Hoover policies, are at their homes, keeping their counsel.

Fine Oats Grown
In Frost Sector;
Near All Been Cut

Rev. R. A. Crosby, pastor of the Eleventh Avenue Methodist church, was in Frost Monday and he brought back with him a bundle of oats that were raised by Mr. English on the Bruce Gil-ham farm. He stated that the oats on that farm were expected to make 100 bushels to the acre.
Oats in all sections of the country are exceptionally fine this year.
The yield is the heaviest in many years.

Practically all of the oats have been cut and with fair weather prevailing only a few more days
the remainder will be cut.

Very little rain has fallen since harvesting of oats started and they are in fine condition.

FROST, June 2.—(Spl.)—Motie
Grace Lattimore has the honor of being the baby of the senior class of the Frost high school.
Miss Lattimore is only 14 years of age. She has also received her diploma in expression this year and has been a student of music during her entire school
years. She is a sister of D. B.
Lattimore of Corsicana, who graduated at the age of 15.
Miss Lattimore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Lattimore of Frost.

Wortham Couple
Married Sunday Morning at Sunrise

At the Methodist Protestant church Sunday morning at 5:30, just at sunrise, a beautiful wedding ceremony was held which the Rev. G.
W. Bounds, officiating clergyman, spoke the words that made Ves-
ley Carl Bounds and Miss Lillie Bell Cole man and wife. This popular young couple were born and reared in Wortham, both graduating at the Wortham high school. Mr. Bounds is the youngest son of Mr. Cal Bounds, now of Clinton, Texas, but formerly of Wortham. The groom holds position with Munroe Drug store. Mr.
Bounds is the only child of Mr.
and Mrs. Floyd Cole of Wortham.
After a bridal trip in the State,
Mr. and Mrs. Bounds will return to Wortham, where they will make their home.

Women, received their Bachelors degrees at the twenty-eighth annual commencement June 1. In addition to this number, there were six candidates for masters degrees, this being the first time Master's degrees have been given by C. I. A.

Katherine Jester of Corsicana and Lella V. Richeson of Frost were among the list of graduates
from this college.

O. P. DOUGLAS IS NAMED PRINCIPAL FOR HIGH SCHOOL

O. P. Douglas, Corsicana high school instructor and head basketball coach for the past nine years, was elected principal of the high school at a meeting of the board of education Monday afternoon, according to an announcement Tuesday by W. P.
McCammon, president of the board. Mr. Douglas will fill the vacancy left by the recent elevation of W. H. Norwood, to the superintendency of the Corsicana public schools which took ed the resignation of H. D. Fillers.
Grady St. Clair, Temple, was recently elected principal, but failed to return his contract, and Mr. Douglas was selected to fill the vacancy. He will assume his duties as principal July 1, after returning from State university, at Austin, where he plans to do further work on his Masters degree. It was stated that Mr. Douglas will not continue his basketball and football coaching, but no official announcement has been made concerning his successor as head basketball coach.

The newly elected principal is popular in the high school with both students and teachers, and is being showered today with congratulations upon his elevation.
Before coming to Corsicana nine years ago, Mr. Douglas was principal of the Edgewood high school and before that was principal of his Masters degree in the University of Colorado. He will take a course in State university this summer, toward the early completion of work on his Masters degree.

Mr. Douglas is considered one of the best basketball coaches in the state, and has produced teams
here that have made enviable records in state contests, and caused widespread comment. In 1925
the team was runner-up in the state A. A. U. tournament, bowing in the final game to Oak Grove
high school, Dallas, and in 1926
went to the finals in the University of Texas Interscholastic league tournament, being defeated by Rockwall high school of San Antonio. The Tiger basketball instructor Douglas has also had many impressive records in more recent years. Mr. Douglas has personal football coach last year and has for several years
been in the past had full charge of the team's practice.

ANOTHER PROMISER DUMB.
CORPUS CHRISTI, June 2.—(P)—
Another promiser was expected to be added to the western portion of the Corpus Christi oil field tonight as workmen prepared today to bring in the Dunn No. 8 at 4-300 feet. The well showed 400 feet of oil in ten minutes during a test last week.

JOHNSON WAS SPEAKER.
TEAGUE, June 2.—(Spl.)—Congressman Luther A. Johnson delivered the graduating address to the forty graduates of Teague
high school on last Friday night.
The affair was held under the ausices of the City Park. An immense crowd attended.

Matchless economy
with six-cylinder smoothness

"Better than 20 miles to the gallon." "Its cost-per-mile is the lowest of any car." "Never have to add oil between crankcase changes." "Drove from Ohio to California on a repair expense of $1.05." "It just runs and runs and runs."

—typical comments from owners of the Chevrolet Six

Chevrolet's 152" frame supports the body throughout its entire length

Why is it that Chevrolet—a big, powerful,
smooth-running six-cylinder costs less to operate and maintain than any other car you can buy? The answer lies in five outstanding factors of Chevrolet economy:

1. Efficient Engine Design makes Chevrolet fuel consumption so low that 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline is nothing unusual for a Chevrolet owner.

2. Modern Chassis Design—as evidenced by Chevrolet's long heavy frame, four parallel-mounted springs, and smooth-running six-cylinder engine—increases
the ability of the Chevrolet Six to run dependably, day after day.

3. Excellence of Manufacture also adds to Chevrolet dependability and long life.
Chevrolet pistons, for instance,
are built so carefully, and held true to such close limits of precision, that many owners have gone

20,000 miles or more without having their motors opened for major servicing.

4. High-Quality Materials are used throughout the Chevrolet car—costly nickel steel, chromevanadium steels, chrome-nickel steels—
to assure trouble-free, low-cost service for tens of thousands of miles.

5. Economical Nationwide Service, with its low flat-rate charges on labor and genuine parts, is available at 10,000 dealers throughout the country, who also offer the protection of the most liberal owner's service policy ever to back a low-priced car.

Remember—in addition to all these basic economies—Chevrolet offers the extra dollars-and-cents advantage of one of the lowest delivered prices on the market.
And this cost may be spread over a period of many months
by the liberal G.M.A.C. plan.

NEW CHEVROLET SIX
The Great American Value

New low prices—Chevrolet passenger car prices range from $475 to $650. Truck chassis prices range from $335 to $590. All prices f. o. b. Flint, Mich. Special equipment

FOUR-WAY FINGERBOARD ON HISTORY OF HIGHEST HILL

Modern Meanings of the Cross of Calvary, Upon Which Jesus Christ Was Crucified -- Old Power For New Needs

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS.

Measures by miles, Mt. Everest, in the Himalayas, is earth's tallest mountain peak. Measured by its spiritual altitude, and its power over human hearts, Mt. Calvary, a little eminence outside the wall of Jerusalem is history's highest hill. In vital significance, Calvary is loftier even than Sinai. On its crest was enacted the supreme sacrifice of the ages. And to Calvary is the Hill of "the Hill" to which hungry hearts by the million are daily lifted up.

Something happened on this height, during one dark afternoon in the bright Springtime, which changed things essentially for all mankind.

Accomplished by the routine labors of bored Roman soldiers; motivated by venal forces of ecclesiasticism and Pharisaism; watched by a multitude with mixed feelings, for dearest devotion and deadliest blood-lust mingled in the throng, a crude, blood-stained, wooden cross, the badge of a despised criminal, was erected on the hilltop, between two other crosses, and the tender, quivering frame of the most sensitive Being that ever walked this earth.

Thus seemed to be brought to pass the end of Jesus Christ, the teacher, helper, healer, friend, and leader. All the glorious promise of three wonderful years was culminating in a cross of defeat and shame.

A Romantic Transformation.

Yet, lo! that cross has become the dearest symbol of humanity. Proud empires have fallen, and nations have been born. Earth's one international banner of succor and brotherhood bears it in glowing red. Lovely women adorn themselves with the cross. The most precious ornament. Most of the decorations of honor bestowed by governments are in the form of a cross. Hero graves are marked by it; and the market places of a myriad towns and cities center about the cross.

Dimly, the world perceives the significance of the eternal cross principle in life; as foreshadowed by the Bible's glimpse of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. Into the whole fabric of human thinking, it has been woven. Everybody who deeply experiences life's reality can cry with the blind preacher Matheson:

"O cross that lifted up my head,
I dare not seek to fly from thee,
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red Life that shall endless be."

Truly, the words of Jesus have been fulfilled: "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me." The cross is the symbol of Christ, not yet the example of Christ, but the cross of Christ—His crucifixion, as the supreme expression of love and saviorhood that heals hearts, and supplies a master motive for living.

In old-world monasteries, and in Moravian churches in this westward world all doors are commonly opened as a cross. The cross carries the silent reminder that Christ's Cross is the door—"I am the door" and "I am the way." He said—into life, into escape, into refuge, into service, into peace.

The Four-Way Fingerboard.

I like to conceive of the Cross as the world's four-way fingerboard, lifted upon the crest of history's highest hill, for the guidance of seeking spirits. First, the cross points downward, where it is deeply rooted in the earth of human need and suffering and sin. The basic reason for the cross lies in the nature of needy, wayward man.

Second, the Cross points upward, toward the illimitable love of the eternal Father-God, whose love lasts even to the Cross. It points toward heaven, with its hope of forgiveness, rewards and reunions, and toward all that is divine in human possibility.

Third and fourth, the Cross points outward, to the East and to the West, engaging in its wide the whole world of human need and brotherhood and sorrow and joy and hope. This universality of the Cross has made it a quate for the spiritual wants of the white man, the black man, the yellow man and the brown. No other symbol, no other faith, has world-wide appeal of the Cross and of the Savior who once hung thereon.

The Three Ultimate Realities.

Somewhat, with a profundity that is deeper than particularization can penetrate, we perceive the Cross stands as the great reality which satisfy us as to the significance of Calvary.

One is the fact of sin. Jesus Christ was crucified by sinners, and yet He died for the sinners of the world—"Who in His own body bore our sins upon the tree." There is a grim reality to sin which many in our own day are trying to blink. Sin is a going out of fashion, but not out of business. Shallow sophisticates are busily spraying rosewater over the reeking evils of human nature. They call sin merely "experience" and "self-expression."

Yet all the while there is a deep consciousness within that it is sin which hurts our hearts, darkens our dreams, frustrates our holiest desire and robs our spirits of peace. We do not need a national commission to investigate what is wrong with our world. It is need that breeds crime; it is sin that makes possible lawlessness of all sorts, from bootlegging to the wholesale manipulation of the stock market into disaster for millions. It is sin that causes the breakdown of our civic life, through the alliance of grafting officials and professional crooks. It is sin that fills the world with fear and hate and war and all unbrotherliness.

Deliverance from sin called for heroic measures, and God's answer is the Cross. We do not get out of sin; we are saved from sin by the power of the crucified Son of God. Of all the world's needs, the greatest is its need for a Savior.

Second of the realities represented by the Cross is the fact of God's love. We do not need a national commission to investigate what is wrong with our world. It is need that breeds crime; it is sin that makes possible lawlessness of all sorts, from bootlegging to the wholesale manipulation of the stock market into disaster for millions. It is sin that causes the breakdown of our civic life, through the alliance of grafting officials and professional crooks. It is sin that fills the world with fear and hate and war and all unbrotherliness.

GRADUATION HELD FOR WESTMINSTER COLLEGE WEDNESDAY

TEHUACANA, June 3.—(Spl.)—The ten young men and eight young women who are candidates for diplomas of graduation from Westminster College, heard District Attorney Sam McCord deliver the commencement address in the college auditorium here today, the close and climax of a four-day graduation program.

The baccalaureate service on Sunday, May 31, was the first event of the commencement activities. Dr. Franklin W. Stephenson, president of the college and general secretary of the board of Christian education, delivered the sermon.

The Rev. J. A. Wade of Wortham delivered the Alumni sermon on the evening of the same Sunday and Monday was marked by the literary events. On Tuesday, June 2, the Alumni banquet was held in Louisiana Hall and that evening the commencement play, "Mr. Lazarus," was given.

The fadeout for the present senior class of the college occurred at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday when District Attorney McCord delivered the commencement address and the diplomas were presented to the seniors.

The eight young women in the class are Misses Lucile Parrish of Emhouse (class secretary), Elena Bounds of Wortham, Louise E. Hickey of Groesbeck, Floyce Frazer of Franklin, Zella Milburn of Lawton, Okla., Maxine Parrish of Emhouse, Velma Ward of Coalinga, and Miss Minnie S. Aldrich of Mexico.

The ten young men are Floyd Bounds of Tehuacana (president of the class), Darwin Hallum of Tehuacana (vice president of the class), Luther A. Bond of Alexandria, La., Eugene B. Bounds of Tehuacana, La. Roy Dorsett of Coolidge, Robert Lewis of Coolidge, Bill Liles of Mexico, Roy Davis of Mt. Vernon, Brooks Connally of Waxahatchie.

Informal Luncheon Sunday in Garland
Home in Richland

RICHLAND, June 3.—(Spl.)—In the course of the friends and loved ones have to separate and participate in various activities. After the luncheon in childhood there are many who never meet again. But there are others whose paths do cross, and, at the meeting, they clasp their hands in greeting.

The J. W. Garland home at Richland was the scene of such greetings and handclasps last Sunday. Nine families excluding nearby friends, were represented in this home. Mr. Garland and his family extended to their guests a sincere welcome and many hearty handshakes.

The home was decorated with sweet peas and beautiful nasturtiums. Everything was set for informal entertainment, and the guests were made to feel perfectly at ease.

Lunch was served at one o'clock to twenty-nine people. The table was covered with white linen and delicious foods. George Garland, son of J. W. Garland, and immediately afterwards the guests crowded around the heavily laden table and served themselves in cafeteria style. Iced tea and coffee were served along with chicken, roast, baked ham, salads of various kinds, and everything imaginable to eat.

The afternoon was taken up with discussions of past, present, and future events. Bilarity filled the house, and those who were present enjoyed themselves immensely. As the evening drew near, the guests expressed their appreciation of the lunch and their sincere regret that it could not last forever.

Those present at the Garland home were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garland and sons, Fred, Dave, and Foster from Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. George Garland and sons, Herbert and Virgie, from Mineola; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wrench, son, Harry and daughter, Sarah, from Waco; Mrs. A. Garland and sons, Roy and Matthews, from Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. A. Wrench and daughter, Beverly Jane, from Waco; Mrs. Gene Brooks from Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stell and Mrs. E. M. Carrington from Corsicana; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garland and sons, Walter, Hugh, and Joegene of Richland; and a number of Richland friends.

EXPORTERS DETHRONED AND ENTHRONED IN LEAGUE LEAD IN DAY

SIDE ATTRACTION BRINGS PLAYER AND MANAGER TOGETHER

BEAUMONT LOSES TO SAN ANTONIO AND CATS TO DALLAS STEERS

(By The Associated Press.) Beaumont slid from the Texas league pinnacle for a couple of hours Wednesday by dropping a 6 to 5 battle to the San Antonio Indians, but Wednesday night, the Exporters, went back on top when Dallas defeated Fort Worth, 7 to 5.

There's one thing you can say for the Exporters—they went down battling. The game, which was plenty lively, added color when Bernie Deiveros, San Antonio shortstop, and Manager Baker exchanged blows with bare knuckles. The one round bout occurred in the last half of the ninth when Deiveros accused the Beaumont club of deliberately lowering the shades on top of the Beaumont grandstand to let the sun shine into Deiveros' eyes, blinding him so he couldn't see how to field ground balls. Deiveros and Baker exchanged punches and then swapped blows without damage.

Fort Worth passed up their opportunity to hold the league lead by losing a night contest to the Steers who staged a five run rally in the ninth inning to win, 7 to 5. The Herd stampede chased Dick Whitworth from the mound. At Shreveport, Ash Hillin, who is making it a habit of winning at the time he goes to the mound, kept six hits scattered while his Wichita Falls mates pounded Turo, Shreveport ace, for a 5 to 2 win.

Something new under the moon occurred at Houston Wednesday night where Bill Harris failed to go the required nine innings for the first time this season. Harris, ranked as Galveston's ace hurler, had finished the first eleven games he started this season, but Wednesday night he was shelled from the mound while the Buffaloes hammered out a 10 to 2 verdict.

Indianapolis Club Seeking Find Most Profitable Time

INDIANAPOLIS, June 4.—(AP)— Hoping to determine which is the more profitable time to play baseball—afternoon or night—the management of the Indianapolis club of the American Association has announced that beginning next week only two night games will be played each week "until further notice."

The policy of playing all games except Sunday contests at night was started last year.

Norman A. Perry, Tribe owner, said he merely wished to do a little "experimenting" in preparation for occupation of a new park which will be completed before the end of the season. He said if weather conditions are normal he believed the results during the next three weeks might form a basis for the policy to be followed.

His Heritage of Hit

By HARDIN BURNLEY

"JOE RIVERS" - FAMOUS OLD MEXICAN LIGHTWEIGHT OF ANOTHER ERA... AND THE 1931 MEXICAN LIGHTWEIGHT SENSATION... TONY HERRERA - LANKY CHICAGO PUNCHER WHO BATTLED JACK BERG TO A STANDSTILL RECENTLY!

IF TONY COULD ONLY PUNCH LIKE OLD AURELIO HERRERA!

SPORT BUG.

© 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc., Great Britain rights reserved

OLD-TIMERS, who still talk of Terry McGovern as "the John L. Sullivan of the little fellows," are interested now in the fast progress of Tony Herrera because that family name revives memories of some of the ring's most poignant thrills. Aurelio Herrera! He never won a championship but he had all the attributes of a real champ save the title! He gave McGovern a terrific battle when "Terrible Terry" was in his prime. The little Mexican with the big wallop came within seconds of knocking out the Brooklyn wonder. A colorful cloutier and courageous to the core, Aurelio made an indelible impression on the fight fans of thirty years ago.

And now comes his nephew, Tony, who is beginning to box his way to lightweight heights. The 1931 Herrera was acclaimed for his punch but, judging from his ten-pound showing against Jackie Kid Berg recently, Tony is a boxer rather than a genuine slugger. Berg got the decision that night but it was close. The Englishman's whirlwind attack did not overwhelm Herrera, yet Berg did keep him back-peddling too much of the time. Tony boxed superbly and landed by far the most clean blows. But the K. O. sock was missing and Berg had the better of most of the toe-to-toe exchanges. In another year Herrera may reverse that result for he gives every sign of becoming a title contender. Perhaps he will perfect the punch that failed to stop Berg. And when he does, Tony will make the third of Mexico's ring trinity in which Aurelio Herrera and Joe Rivers are talked of wherever gloved dynamiters are discussed. The new Herrera is 23 years old officially (he looks and may be younger). Tony's been boxing professionally for a little more than two years. He's beaten such good battlers as Tommy Grogan, Eddie Anderson, Joe Glick and Jackie Pilkington. Old-timers, who watched Tony in action, say he's a better boxer than Aurelio was, but—oh, how they miss the historic Herrera wallop!

MATCH PLAY OPENS IN TEXAS TOURNEY DALLAS THURSDAY

NEIL SMITH AND GUS MORELAND TIE FOR MEDALIST HONORS

DALLAS, June 4.—(P)—The last qualifying score in the twenty-fifth annual Texas Golf Association state championship was posted late yesterday after 36 holes of medal play, and today the 32 low qualifiers started their treks that lead to the 1931 state title. Two 18-hole matches will be played each day until the finals Saturday when the two finalists battle it out in a 36-hole combat.

Neil Smith, Brook Hollow Country club, and Gus Moreland, Cedar Crest Country club, tied for medalist with 147 each. Smith, who is Dallas champion, shot a 36-40-76 to put with his brilliant 71 Tuesday for his 147. Gus Moreland, fresh from winning the Ranger Country club invitation continued his championship golf with a 36-36-72, which plus his 75 Tuesday, made him 147. Frank Lewis, San Antonio Country club, was second with two fine rounds of 75-74-149. It required a card of 161 to make the championship flight.

Dallas led in placing players in the championship bracket with 22. Out of town golfers to qualify in the title flight were: Frank Lewis, Jr., San Antonio; Willie C. Hurt, Houston; J. E. Giles, Austin; L. G. McCray, Denton; W. R. Long, Jr., Austin; Bud McKinney, Del Rio; Clyde Cunningham, Houston; Leland Hamman, Paris; E. A. Schriever, Bryan, and Ossie Carlton, Houston.

GOLF AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

GOLF IS A GAME THAT CHILDREN ENJOY ALSO

What is the most important factor in first-class iron play?

Answered by MORTIE DUTRA

Crispness is a most important factor in good iron club play. It is of tremendous importance to hit the ball very crisply, and fine iron club players will always be found to do this. The short pitches, as well as the long irons, must be good and crisp. It is a common thing among players in the 90 to 100 class to just barely soften a little on the hit, and to try to hit the ball on the upswing. This technique is very faulty. To insure good results, the ball must be hit on the downswing, and you very emphatically must eliminate the thought of trying to lift the ball into the air. Good hands and wiry wrists give a player a great advantage in getting crispness in his iron play. Motto: Always crisp and firm in your iron play.

Hack Wilson Back in Cubs' Lineup

CHICAGO, June 4.—(P)—Hack Wilson, home run king of 1930, has been given another chance to come back with the Cubs.

Moore reported with a slight leg injury. Moore expected to be back in the game in a few days however, unless Hack made good. So far this season, Wilson's bat has been impotent of his usual production of hits.

SPORT NOTES

By PAUL MOORE Daily Sun Sports Editor

Numerous matches are being played in the country club this week. The first two rounds are to be completed by Sunday night, and the golfers are expected to get most of the matches over the way before Sunday as the local club will oppose the Mexico team in the Central Texas league over the local course Sunday afternoon. The local team is leading the percentage column at the present time, and is the favorite to cop the title.

Joe Cantrell, ace right-hander of the Corsicana Oilers in the days when the local club was winning championships in the Texas association, who later went to Shreveport and has now been hurled for Decatur for five years, is still winning ball games consistently as the following paragraphs written in Springfield, Mo., by Bob Sink will show:

"Joe Cantrell, the old maestro of the Commodores, goes on forever. "Starting his fifth season as a member of the Decatur club, Cantrell Friday afternoon became the first Connie to pitch a shutout when he held the Springfield Senators to five hits for a 1-0 victory. "The same old Joe that comes up every year from Bluffdale, Texas, had all of his old stuff, and more than usual of his cunning as he took the first contest of the year from the Commodores' most bitter rivals. Pitching against a club hailed as the best

Home run hitters Wednesday included Vosmick, Cleveland; Melillo, St. Louis Browns; Cuyler, Chicago; Cols, Herman, Brooklyn; Mosolf, Pittsburgh; Fox, Philadelphia Athletics.

Lefty Grove, ace pitcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, turned in his ninth victory of the season Wednesday afternoon when the Athletics, downed, the Chicago White Sox, 2-1, in a pitchers' duel with Ted Lyons. This was Grove's eighth straight mound win.

Only one run has been scored off the delivery of Grove during the last thirty innings he has pitched, and that was caused by a wild heave by one of his mates.

Vosmick, sensational rookie outfielder of Cleveland, broke up a pitchers' duel in the eleventh inning Wednesday against Boston.

Herrera Will Meet Eddie Anderson in Pittsburgh Thursday

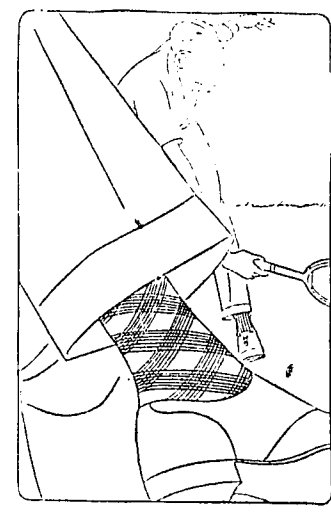

PITTSBURGH, June 4.—(P)—Some fast milling is expected tonight when Tony Herrera, Mexican flash, and Eddie Anderson, Wyoming cowboy, come together with the ten round feature bout at Hickey Park, Millvale.

This is the second meeting of the two here. Herrera won a close decision from Anderson at Motor Square Garden last December. Both also have appeared against other opponents.

They battle tonight at 138 pounds.

NATIONAL CLUBS GET EVEN BREAK WEDNESDAY GAMES

LEFTY GROVE WINS EIGHTH STRAIGHT; ALL CONTESTS WERE CLOSE

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
Although their cause seems more or less hopeless in the face of the Athletics' phenomenal streak, Walter Johnson's Washington Senators are living up to their promise to give the champions a run for their money in the American league.

While the New York Yankees have dropped back the last night, the Senators have plugged doggedly along, winning 10 of their last 14 engagements and keeping within hailing distance of the fast-traveling leaders. They are firmly established in second place, five games behind the Mackmen and two ahead of the Yankees.

The champions registered their twenty-third victory in their last twenty-six starts yesterday. Lefty Grove, pitching his eighth straight win, let the Chicago White Sox down with six hits and beat them, 2 to 1.

Washington kept pace with its second straight over Detroit, also by a 2 to 1 margin. Bob Burke, young southpaw, allowed only three hits to Vic Sorrell in a tight mound duel.

Joe Vosmik, rookie outfielder, cracked a home run in the eleventh inning to give the Cleveland Indians their ninth straight victory at the expense of the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 4.

The western clubs gained an even break for the day when the St. Louis Browns, personally conducted by Oscar Melillo, beat out an 8 to 5 triumph over the Yankees. The Browns second sacker drove in four runs.

Matters stood all square after two days of National league warfare west of the Alleghenies. New York came back to lick St. Louis, 9 to 5, and Chicago staged a last-inning rally to down Brooklyn, 9 to 8, and even their series.

Dreessen's triple, followed by Rabbit Maravilla's squeeze bunt, gave the Boston Braves a run to nose out the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4 to 3, in ten innings.

Eppa Rixey, veteran Cincinnati left-hander, starts leading the Phillies back with four hits as the Reds squared their series, 3 to 1.

FEW LETTERMEN TO BE LOST TEXAS U.
TEAMS THIS YEAR

AUSTIN, June 3.—(AP)—The coaches' nightmare, graduation will cut a comparatively small swath in the ranks of University of Texas athletes, with predictions that Longhorn teams will mark next year at which only a few lettermen will be lost.

Only 20 lettermen will be lost, the smallest number in several years. Last year 33 lettermen graduated, seriously crippling the football, baseball and basketball teams. This year, the graduating lettermen were more evenly spread out over the sport field and the losses will not be felt so keenly.

Several of the best athletes ever to wear the Orange and White, however, will be lost. Football will lose six men, including Dexter Shelley, 1930 captain. The list also includes Grover "Ox" Emerson, elected to captain the 1931 team but who was declared ineligible by conference officials.

Milton Perkins is the only three-letter man to be graduated this year and the second in the history

TWO HOPES LEFT FOR ALBERT FALL TO ESCAPE PRISON

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—

Falling to obtain relief through the supreme court, Albert E. Fall today had remaining two narrow avenues of escape from a year in prison and a $100,000 fine.

The interior secretary in Harding's cabinet was refused a review by the highest tribunal yesterday of his conviction of accepting a $100,000 bribe from Edward L. Doheny, wealthy oil man, in leasing government oil lands.

If Fall receives a presidential pardon, he will be relieved of the entire penalty, but if that fails there remains the hope of his friends that the prison sentence will be suspended because of his age and ill-health.

At the White House it was said no appeal on behalf of Fall has been received and if one were made, it would follow the usual course and be sent to the justice department for recommendations.

Fall's friends found little comfort in that, but the recommendation of the trial judge at the time of his conviction led them to believe his chances for a suspension of the sentence good.

Justice Hitz, the trial judge, said then if Fall were to come before him for commitment the jail sentence would not be imposed because of Fall's physical condition.

Few legal formalities remain before the question is settled.

Refuses Review Case.
The supreme court notified the District Columbia court of appeals that it would not review the case. The appeals court recently affirmed his conviction. Its order that the sentence be executed because of Fall's physical condition.

There the matter will rest until after the summer recess. Prosecutors for the government in the oil scandals, appears before a district warrant of commitment. Pomerehne said last night in Cleveland he would not recommend clemency for Fall.

Unless the president intervenes, the question of the fall sentence will be settled then. If Fall loses, he will come to Washington and supreme court judge and asks for begin his sentence in the District of Columbia jail. If he wins, he probably will remain at his ranch at Three Rivers, New Mexico.

BIDS ORDERED ON UNSAID PORTION HIGHWAY BONDS

Bids on the unsaid portions of the bonds voted several years ago in Navarro County Consolidated Road District No. 1 will be received on June 20 according to the action of the Navarro County Commissioners' court Monday in authorizing County Judge H. C. Nix to advertise the bonds for sale.

The county judge was also authorized to advertise for bids for the work on cardinal road No. 4 and lateral road No. 4 Monday.

Two graders and a tractor were purchased for use in commissioner J. O. Sessions' precinct.

Bids were also authorized for chairs and remodeling of the Navarro county courthouse, according to the plans and specifications prepared by Horn & Blauvelt.

Dr. Shell will also spend a day at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore, several days in New York visiting hospitals, and former Corsicans, and will inspect the new Medical School at Yale University, New Haven, Conn., before returning home the latter part of June.

North Corsicana Missionary Women Met On Monday

The North Corsicana Missionary ladies met Monday afternoon in regular session with the president, Mrs. H. L. Hervey in the chair. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Emma Cohn. The meeting opened with a song. Have Thine Own Way Lord! Mrs. Preston Gordon at the piano. Scripture reading by Mrs. Lura Mathewson, followed by prayer led by Mrs. W. F. Horger. Reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. E. A. Keller, approved as read. President read an invitation from Mrs. Hanks of Kerens to the society to meet with them Thursday of this week at their zone meeting.

Our business being concluded we began our lesson, from the Missionary Voice. First was a paper titled, "What Price Romance" by Mrs. E. A. Keller, which was telling of our home mission work principally. Then Mrs. Pale gave the subject, "The Land of John Huss. Mrs. Pale is a Baptist, working with us, we are proud to have a good Christian character like Mrs. Pale to help us in this, our Lord's work."

PROMINENT DOCTOR FOUND MURDERED IN HIS HOME TUESDAY

NEW YORK, June 2.—(AP)—

Dr. George Edward Deely, prominent eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, was found slain today in his home in a fashionable residential section of Brooklyn. He had been stabbed and his skull crushed by a mahogany ball which had been torn from a bed post.

Dr. Deely apparently had been attacked by someone he knew and did not fear, police said. The door to his bedroom and the outside doors of his four-story house all were locked, and no windows were open.

Arthur Lindars and his wife Norma, servants, slept on the floor above the doctor. They said they slept through the night undisturbed.

Near the bed on which his body, clad in pajamas and dressing gown, was found, was an overturned rocking chair.

Police believe he was sitting in the rocking chair when he was attacked.

The wooden ball with which he had been hit was attached by a pin to a post of the bed. Apparently, police said, the assailant had held it by the pin and had hit Dr. Deely over the head with it again and again.

The doctor also had been stabbed in the abdomen.

The Lindars' had been in Dr. Deely's employ less than a week. They said the retired early last night to their room on the top floor, leaving the doctor, they thought, in his living room on the second floor.

They said they did not hear any sound in the night although there were evidences that Dr. Deely had struggled with his assassin.

The murder was discovered when Mrs. Lindars called a policeman. Mrs. Lindars went to the doctor's room to call him for breakfast. The door was locked, and there was no answers when she and her husband pounded on it. Finally Lindars called a policeman. An ambulance surgeon said the doctor had been dead for some time.

Dr. Deely was about 54 years old and had been practicing in the Columbia Heights section of Brooklyn, overlooking Lower Manhattan and New York harbor for 20 years. The district has for many years been the home of conservative and wealthy Brooklyn families.

He was a bachelor.

CORSICANA BANKER
ON COMMITTEE FOR ELEVENTH DISTRICT

DALLAS, June 3.—(AP)—Lynn P. Talley of Dallas, Governor of the Eleventh District of the Federal Reserve Bank, in addressing nearly 200 Texas and New Mexico bankers today asserted that conditions in the district were good compared with those in other sections of the United States.

The bankers were here for the annual stockholders' meeting of the Eleventh District Federal Reserve Bank.

Members of the advisory committee elected today were: Andrew Quereb, Shreveport, La.; J. E. Angly, Palestine; A. B. Childs, Naples; F. M. Murchison, El Paso; A. J. Peterson, Galveston; and W. P. Riley, Junction.

Hold-over members of the group are: E. A. Palmer, Yoakum; P. E. Dyer, Beaumont; W. S. Posey, Lubbock; John Gregg, Brownsville; J. B. Fortson, Corsicana; and G. K. Richardson, Carlsbad, N. M.

This committee will elect officers at a later date.

Resident Corsicana For Many Years Died At Home on Sunday

Mrs. Mary Howard, 82, a resident of Corsicana for nearly forty years, passed away Sunday morning about 9 o'clock at the residence of her son, Joe Howard, 504 East Tenth avenue. Surviving are one son, Joe Howard; two daughters, Mrs. Mattie Landridge and Mrs. Mandy Morris, all of Corsicana; and a granddaughter, Mrs. Minnie Cooper of Kilgore.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence of her son, by Rev. A. O. Burgess, pastor of the Nazarene church at 10:30 a. m. Monday.

Though not confined to her bed, Mrs. Howard was suffering a number of years, and intensely so for several months. Yet she bore it with great patience and with little murmuring. It is such a pleasure to note the beautiful traits of a noble soul. We can throw our hearts open without reserve and pluck from the English language, the loveliest adjectives in its great store. She has raised her family so much like the pattern given in the 31st chapter of proverbs, that her children truly rise up to call her blessed.

We can gladly state that she was not penniless by the providence of God, but praise His name who was her friend. Rich and universal was the praise of friends and neighbors. Yes, and there lurks not a doubt in our hearts that the merciful and loving God will some day demonstrate before us the glory of her beautiful life.

I am proud to embrace this privilege to join in the prayerful benediction that those of us whose lives have been touched by the sainted life of this our mother and sister in the Lord, may be inspired to double our diligence to make our peace calling, and elections sure, to be reunited with her in the kingdom our Heavenly Father.

A devoted friend,
W. F. Sanders.

PAPAL SECRETARY OF STATE TAKING HAND NEW CRISIS

ROME, June 2.—(AP)—

Cardinal Pietro Gasparri, who as papal secretary of state signed the Lateran treaty in 1929, is believed to have taken a hand in the new crisis in relations between the Vatican and the Italian government.

It is understood that the cardinal is laying the ground work for official negotiations to prevent what appears to be a new parting of the ways between the church and the state. He is one of those, it is said, who regard this situation as one of the gravest in recent times and threatening both the Lateran treaty and the concordate between Rome and the Holy See.

American interests are still involved, for permission extended unofficially yesterday for reopening of playgrounds operated by the American Knights of Columbus has not been approved by the premier, Papal Count Edmondo Hearn, in charge of the playgrounds, already has filed a protest at the American embassy and now he will urge the ambassador to file his own with the Italian government.

At noon today the Pontiff had received no word from the Italian government in reply to his note of protest regarding the dissolution of the Catholic societies. Officially, he is still in the dark and actually, it is said, he is ignorant of Mussolini's real intentions.

The Vatican insists the dissolution violated the concordat between the two governments but it is expected that until there is an official Italian statement the Vatican state department will refrain from action.

Whatever the Pope may do if these informal negotiations fail, it is expected he will proceed slowly, probably beginning with recall of the Papal Nuncio to Rome without actually breaking off diplomatic relations.

He will go slowly, it is reasoned in diplomatic circles, because the church is a worldwide institution and the Pontiff is confident of his prestige and his power.

The Rome branch of the American Y. M. C. A. is practically the only club outside of Fascist organizations now operating and even that institution was technically closed for half an hour Saturday. The secretary sealed one room on a police order but later the order was rescinded.

Whatever the Pope may do if these informal negotiations fail, it is expected he will proceed slowly, probably beginning with recall of the Papal Nuncio to Rome without actually breaking off diplomatic relations.

to file his own with the Italian government.

At noon today the Pontiff had received no word from the Italian government in reply to his note of protest regarding the dissolution of the Catholic societies. Officially, he is still in the dark and actually, it is said, he is ignorant of Mussolini's real intentions.

The Vatican insists the dissolution violated the concordat between the two governments but it is expected that until there is an official Italian statement the Vatican state department will refrain from action.

in the Texas National Guard and a member of the inspector general's force in Texas, was on active duty. He telephoned here from Austin about 11 o'clock last night saying he was leaving Austin for Waco where he would meet Major E. T. Underwood, also of the inspector general's department who was here arranging for the transfer of a service battalion from Waco to Dallas.

Nothing was heard of Robertson after 11 o'clock until a passing tourist found the wreck and the body at 4 o'clock this morning. Major Underwood took charge of the arrangements here, and said that two of Robertson's brothers were on their way to Waco from Robertson's home at Gonzales to take the body.

Robertson was a native of Gonzales and is survived by his parents and several brothers there. His father is a banker and business man at Gonzales.

During the world war Robertson was a captain in the 141st infantry and was decorated for heroism. He was a graduate of the Texas A. and M. college, and had been active in American Legion work in the state. His brother-in-law, Will Dunning, is a former commander of the Texas department of the American Legion.

Had Distinguished Military Record

AUSTIN, June 4.—(P)—Robert L. Robertson, killed in an automobile accident at Lorena, south of Waco, about midnight, was adjutant general during the administration of Gov. Dan Moody. He also had a long and distinguished military record, serving as a captain during the World War, where he saw service overseas in the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

Immediately after declaration of war, he entered the first officers' training camp at Leon Springs, Texas, May, 1917. He served as sergeant as captain of infantry, 36th division.

With the re-organization of the 36th division, Texas National Guard, after the World War, Robertson was made major of infantry, in the Texas National Guard and assigned to duty as battalion commander, 141st infantry regiment.

When Dan Moody was inaugurated as governor of Texas in January, 1927, the office of adjutant general of Texas and brigadier general of the Texas National Guard was tendered Major Robertson.

General Robertson was given credit for increasing the value and effectiveness of the Texas Rangers. At his request, the 41st legislature increased the Rangers' salaries.

During the last federal armory inspection of the National Guard, under General Robertson's regime, not one of the 163 units was rated "unsatisfactory," and 144 of them, or 88.3 per cent, received ratings of "very satisfactory," the highest possible rating.

The flag of the state capital and the state office building were ordered at half mast by the board of control.

Adjutant General William W. Sterling, General Robertson's successor in office, left early today for Waco.

During the recent session of the legislature, a concurrent resolution was adopted commending General Robertson for his services as adjutant general and chief of the Ranger service and thanking him for his efforts to bring the Texas National Guard to a high efficiency rating.

General Robertson supervised the Texas National Guard contingents at Borger when that town was placed under martial law and also was in command when Gov. Dan Moody declared martial law at Sherman following the lynching of a negro and the burning of the Grayson county courthouse.

He also aided in relief work when Frost was struck by a tornado last year.

ENGINEERING STUDIES SHOW GREAT SINGERS OWE SUCCESS TO GENIUS NOT TO ANATOMY

By HOWARD BLAKESLEE
Associate Press Science Editor
NEW YORK, June 4.—(P)—Cold engineering studies credit the voices of great singers to genius instead of anatomy. When the "curve" of a great voice is plotted on such a chart as carries the stress calculations of a skyscraper, mental and emotional capacity are found to be the chief controls of the "genius" line. These studies were made public today by the engineering foundation. They were made by Douglas Stanley, a fellow of the Acoustical Society of America, working with scientists at New York university and the Bell Laboratories. They cover ten years research.

"Great singing voice," says the report, "are due to the singer's mental and emotional capacity, and not to any anatomical peculiarities."

INSPECTOR HALTS BUSES ON CHARGE BEING TOO WIDE

HEARING TO BE HELD SOON; PASSENGER THREATENS
SUIT FOR DELAY

AMARILLO, June 4.—(P)—Buses of the Pickwick Greyhound Lines, operating through the Texas Panhandle on a transcontinental route were tied up at the local division point today awaiting outcome of a hearing to determine if they comply with laws regulating width of vehicles on state highways.

An east bound bus was held up at Hereford two hours and 45 minutes yesterday when John Keller, state license inspector, filed charges against the driver for operating a motor vehicle wider than eight feet. Keller said the width of the bus was in excess of eight and a half feet.

Eighteen passengers later were transferred to the Safety First Lines for transportation through Texas. At least one of the passengers was still in Amarillo today, threatening suit against the state for the delay.

According to R. L. Platner, agent for the Pickwick Line.

Platner said buses used on the Panhandle division carried rebuilt bodies that varied in width. He said he did not know how many would be held up until a ruling can be obtained. Buses meeting the requirements will be operated over the line until a hearing is held, he said.

FAVORABLE WEATHER CONDITIONS IMPROVE TEXAS TRUCK CROP

AUSTIN, June 4.—(P)—Favorable weather conditions in May resulted in a substantial improvement in the truck crop situation, according to the report of G. D. Clark, federal truck crop estimator, issued today.

The condition of corn was estimated at 6 per cent better than May 1, with onions in North Texas showing a similar gain. Irish potatoes dropped one point; tomatoes gained two points and watermelons four points while cantaloupes dropped ten points.

The first Texas watermelons were expected to be shipped from Wilbrey county this week. The movement was anticipated as slow with rising volume. The Lower Valley tomato season was drawing near a close with harvesting set to start in Central and East Texas as next week.

Harvesting of North Texas Bermuda onions will start next week, with a good crop predicted unless weather conditions become unfavorable.

The 200-acre garlic crop in Collin county will be ready for harvest about June 20.

Disabled Veterans And Wives to Meet Friday Evening

All disabled veterans of the world war and their families are requested to meet at the courthouse here Friday night at 8 o'clock, it has been announced by leaders in the movement to organize a D. A. V. chapter. The chapter is expected at that time, it was said.

Wilson Poisoned?

Herbert O. Yardley (above), organizer and chief of the War Department's cipher bureau during the World War, has Washington and the country all agog over the statement that President Wilson's death may have been due to a slow poison administered to him when the war President was in Paris. Yardley, in a new book titled "America's Black Chamber," graphically describes a plot which he unearthed to assassinate President Wilson by slow poison.

Trinity River Canal Association To Hold First Annual Banquet

FORT WORTH, June 4.—(P)—The Trinity River Canal Association joined by the Fort Worth and Dallas Chambers of Commerce, will hold its first annual banquet here June 20.

What the proposed canalization of the Trinity will mean to Texas' industrial future, and how Texans can help to build Texas by supporting this project, will be the theme of the gathering, at which legislators from Tarrant and Dallas counties will be honor guests.

Senator Morris Sheppard will speak on "A Canalized Trinity," and Roy Miller, Corpus Christi, executive vice president, will tell of the benefits of the canal district. Greenleafs will be extended to the gathering by Arthur L. Kremer, Dallas, and John W. Carpenter, Dallas, president of the association, will have as the subject of his brief talk, "Texans, Let's Build Texas."

Federal Narcotic Agent Faces Hearing For His Extradition

GALESTON, June 4.—(P)—Fred Mertz, federal narcotic agent, faced a hearing today before Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly on extradition proceedings brought by the British government, which seeks to return him to Canada for trial there on a murder charge.

Mertz was charged with the slaying of Amedee Bilodeau, Canadian citizen, at a house on the Canadian-American border. United States attorneys claim the killing took place in line of duty, and occurred on the American side.

PLANES HOMEWARD BOUND
NEW ORLEANS, June 4.—(P)—Thirty-nine army planes of the third attack group, which arrived from the east late yesterday to spend the night here, flashed away from New Orleans this morning for home at Fort Crockett, Texas. They formed part of the present air concentration at Dayton, Ohio.

COURTHOUSE NEWS

District Court
The Navarro county grand jury was still in session Thursday morning.

Commissioner's Court
Bids for repairs to the foundations of the Navarro county court house will be opened July 1, by the Navarro county commissioners court, it was decided Wednesday, and bids for concrete paving of the Corsicana-Ward Bridge lateral road and the cut-off or tie-in road from North Beaton street to National highway 75 will also be opened July 1, George W. Boyd, commissioner of precinct 1, announced Thursday.

The commissioners are also working as a board of equalization. With the awarding of the contracts in July for the two-above mentioned roads, all of the roads in consolidated road district No. 1 will be either completed or under construction with the exception of highway 22 from a point near the Orphans' homes to the district line in the vicinity of Pinkston, and there is a possibility that the state highway commission may start work on that this year, as surveys are already under way.

Get Life for Ohio Pen Fire

Sentenced to spend the rest of their lives in the Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus for their part in the Easter Monday fire in 1930, which claimed hundreds of convicts' lives, Clinton Crate and Hugh Gibson are shown being returned to the prison accompanied by deputy sheriffs.

HIGHWAY PATROL UNIFORM LAW IS SIGNED THURSDAY

AUSTIN, June 4.—(P)—Governor R. S. Sterling today signed a bill to require law enforcement officers making arrests for violation of that highway traffic laws to wear dark blue or grey uniforms. The law, passed by the forty-first legislature requiring the uniforms was declared unconstitutional by the court of criminal appeals.

Under the new law, officers making traffic arrests on state highway unless in full uniform of cap, blouse or coat and trousers of like color, will be subject to a fine of from $50 to $1,000, the offense being declared a misdemeanor.

The bill was an emergency measure because "deputy constables are not properly regulated." It also limited the number of deputy constables that could be appointed. In precincts having a city of 8,000 population or less, one deputy constable may be appointed; between 8,000 and 40,000 population, two deputies and over 40,000 population, five deputies. All deputies must be approved by the commissioners court.

The governor also signed a bill requiring the county auditor and county clerk to make an annual financial statement to the state auditor. The report must show the amount of taxes collected in each government unit, the amount delinquent, the money on hand to the credit of the sinking fund and the amount of the bonded indebtedness. The state auditor will be required to compile the information for general use.

GROUP QUARTERLY CONFERENCE M. E. CHURCHES BE HELD

Dr. Caspar S. Wright, president of the Corsicana district, has instituted a rather novel and unique plan for the holding of the third round of quarterly conferences in the district. He has divided the district of 23 pastoral charges into three groups. Instead of going into each of these 23 charges for a quarterly conference occasion, he is taking each group as a kind of unit, and then at the end of the group itinerary, he will conduct a district rally and group quarterly conference for the churches comprising this respective group.

Group number 1 is comprised of the following charges: Corsicana, First church; Corsicana, Eleventh Avenue; Corsicana, North Side; Embouse charge; Rice station; Chisholm charge; Bazette circuit; and Kerens station. Comprising these eight charges are thirteen churches.

Before June 16, Dr. Wright will have preached in each of these thirteen churches. And on June 16, the entire membership, not only the official board, are called to meet at First church, Corsicana, for a great joint rally and group quarterly conference occasion. At 10:30 the day's program will begin with a service in the main auditorium of First church. Placards will designate places in the auditorium for the seating of the groups from each charge.

At 11 a. m. will be the hour of a great spiritual service, the sermon hour to be brought by some minister to be selected by Dr. Wright.

Picnic Dinner
At the conclusion of the morning session the entire group will gather on the lawn of the church for lunch. The lunch will be served in picnic style, every family from over these charges being asked to bring a picnic lunch. Plenty of tables will be on the lawn for the spreading of the lunch.

Places will also be designated here for each group to spread their lunch, however it is the wish of the presiding elder that this be an occasion for the people of this section to become better acquainted and thus develop a closer spirit of cohesiveness and cooperation between the churches of the district. This suggests the slogan or motto adopted by the district in the early part of the year: "One in Purpose."

At 1:30 p. m. the people will gather again in the main auditorium for the holding of the group quarterly conference. Each group will of course sit together in the auditorium. Each official board will choose a secretary and then under the guidance and supervision of Dr. Wright the group quarterly conference will be held. Brief reports of the various interests of each charge will be made and business attended to as same.

It can certainly be made an outstanding service in the history of the district, if everybody concerned will cooperate. From this service there should come the inspiration and impetus to carry on for the remaining months of the conference year and bring to a consummation a great program of both the spiritual and temporal affairs of the kingdom.

Intermediates of Methodist Sunday School in Session
Week-day activities of the intermediate department of the Methodist Sunday school were instituted on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the educational building. The superintendent, Mrs. Carrie E. Bailey, invited the second year groups of the department to meet her at this time. She was assisted by Mrs. J. W. Bergin and Mrs. F. P. McElwraith. Plans were discussed and made for the future week-day activities of the department.

One of the first projects of the group will be the preparation and writing of an original missionary play to be put on by the department on the fourth Sunday of the month during the department assembly period. During the afternoon's program, a group of selected games were engaged in by the group and refreshments served.

VACATION TIME FOR NINE SUPREME COURT JUSTICES AT HAND; DIVERGENT PLANS

By SAM BLEDSOE
WASHINGTON, June 4.—(P)—Far away places, mountain air, salt breezes, and quiet, cool nooks are calling the nine supreme court justices and they are harkening. Their vacation plans are an indication of the divergent tastes of the men who compose the high tribunal although a majority are addicted to golf and probably will make it a part of their summer recreations.

Chief Justice Hughes once played but he was conspicuous for his hooks and slices and has almost abandoned the game. It has no place on a schedule which includes a leisurely tour of Europe with Mrs. Hughes. He likes art galleries, Paris, Swiss mountains and the Italian lake country and brick walks. The chief justice sails June 18, remaining until September 4.

Justice and Mrs. Van DeVenter also intend to go abroad. The judge probably will visit Scotch golf courses and add variety by long seasons of Wagner at German music festivals.

Justice McReynolds may go to Europe but his plans are indefinite. A bachelor, he likes to yield to sudden whims and set out for some place on a moment's notice.

Many a golf game on the courses about Buena Vista Springs, Pennsylvania, is planned by Justice Butler, this summer. Big and strong, he gets distance if not always accuracy.

The athlete of the court is powerful Justice Stone, who likes a variety of sports. He is an early riser and a participant in white house medicine ball games. He will spend his vacation on an island he owns near Isle Au Haute off the coast of Maine.

The justices will not escape the law altogether. All have left addresses with Charles Elmore Cropley, clerk of the court, and the briefs to be filed during the recess will be sent to them to be read in preparation for the 1931 term beginning October 5.

TRUCK DRIVER IS FACING EXECUTION IN WOMAN'S MURDER

NEW YORK, June 4.—(P)—Rudolph C. Ruriger, 25, Ossining truck driver, was convicted early today of murder, first degree, for the killing of Virginia Brannan, dance hall hostess.

Justice Cohn said he would pronounce the mandatory sentence next Monday which will condemn Ruriger to the electric chair in Sing Sing prison in his home town.

Duriger was calm and stoical when he heard the verdict which the jury returned after seven hours deliberation.

Miss Ehlmann, who came to New York from Bangor, Me., was shot during an automobile ride in the Bronx, April 27.

Duriger said he shot her accidentally when she clutched his volvier. He then drove to Yonkers and tossed her body behind a hedge.

Another member of the automobile party was Francis Crowley, now in the Sing Sing deathhouse for the slaying a Long Island policeman. They were captured in a Manhattan apartment, after a gun fight with 150 policemen, armed with tear gas and machine guns.

UNITED STATES TREASURER SIGNS ONE CHECK MONTH

WASHINGTON, June 4.—(P)—Walker O. Woods, treasurer of the United States, signs just one government check a month. It's President Hoover's pay check. Although directly holding the purse strings in business involving more than three billion dollars annually, quiet Mr. Woods applies his pen only on this draft for $6,250 toward the $75,000 yearly salary of the president.

He does have his name on federal paper money, however. His signature is to be seen on the lower left side of the front of each bill. That of his chief, Secretary Mellon, is on the right.

Another duty of the treasurer is supervision of the daily statement on governmental finances. This shows the condition of the treasury and expenditures by the month and year to date, and gives comparisons with the same periods in the previous year.

Redemption of worn or partially destroyed currency is another matter under the treasurer's jurisdiction. The number and amounts of bills must be checked before new currency is issued.

The annual Golden Cross, hospital, enrollment will be made in the Sunday school and church of the First Methodist church Sunday. This matter was presented to each class in the Sunday school and to the church last Sunday. Literature on the project was given out and each one furnished with an envelope for this offering and enrollment.

The Golden Cross enrollment funds are used for charity work in the Methodist hospital in Fort Worth and Mrs. Caspar S. Wright, director, is anxious for a large enrollment Sunday. There are different amounts for enrollment:

from 25 cents up for children to $1 up to $100 for adults.

Water Supply For Teague Increased

TEAGUE, June 4.—(Spl.)—The water situation in Teague is brighter as a result of drilling the last water well. This is the third drilled recently. The first was a dry hole, the second fair, and this well, which is over 400 feet deep, shows every indication of being an exceptional producer. Three deep wells were already furnishing the Teague water supply; however one of the best producers practically failed and thus the water supply for the town throughout the coming dry season was put in a precarious condition.

Long-Time Resident Frost Community Was Buried on Thursday

FROST, June 4.—(Spl.)—Funeral services for James Short, age 78 years, who died at his home in the Hackberry community at 12:30 Wednesday afternoon, were held at the Frost cemetery Thursday morning at 9:30.

He had been a resident of this section of the county many years and was well known.

Surviving are his wife, three sons, W. L. and N. L. Short of Frost and Wiley Short of Glade-water.

JURY OUT LITTLE OVER HOUR GIVES VERDICT IN CASE

DEFENDANT CHARGED CONNECTION ALLEGED KIDNAPING OF ROBERT CERF

Currie Caldwell was found guilty in the Thirteenth judicial district court Wednesday afternoon by the jury for assault of a person while masked and in disguise and his punishment was fixed at 12 years in the penitentiary.

The verdict was returned by the jury one hour and five minutes after deliberations had started.

Defense attorneys indicated that a motion for a new trial would be presented to District Judge Hawkins Scarborough in due time, and it is expected that if the motion for a new trial is overruled, the case will be appealed.

Caldwell was the first of those indicted in connection with the kidnaping of Robert Cerf to be tried.

The case was given the jury at 2:10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and the verdict was returned at 3:15 o'clock.

District Judge Hawkins Scarborough ordered Deputy Sheriff Jack Floyd to take the defendant into custody.

The courtroom was crowded all the afternoon, awaiting the returning of the verdict by the jury. Judge Hawkins Scarborough had just gone home when the jury indicated that it was ready with its verdict, and hurried back to the courthouse to receive the report.

R. W. Smith, Corsicana, was foreman of the jury.

The defendant was being tried in connection with the kidnaping of Robert Cerf, 26, here, Dec. 9, 1930, and the subsequent payment of $15,000 for his release in Dallas by young Cerf's father, I. N. Cerf.

Questioning of prospective jurors began here a week ago today, and the first two days was consumed by motion and selection of the jurors.

Testimony was started Friday morning and was finished Monday noon with the exception of a small amount introduced by the defense Tuesday afternoon.

Arguments of the attorneys started Tuesday afternoon by Chris L. Knox, assistant criminal district attorney, and it was ended Wednesday morning by Henry Tiley of Dallas, special prosecutor.

Others arguing the case before the jury for the state included J. S. Callcutt, special prosecutor, and Cleo G. Miller, criminal district attorney.

Defense attorneys arguing the case were Messrs. Justice and Sigler of Athens, and Norris W. Lovett and A. P. Mays of Corsicana.

Richard Mays and T. W. Lovett, both of Corsicana, defense attorneys, did not argue the case before the jury.

The case has attracted one of the largest crowds for sustained interest in the history of the thirteenth judicial district court, and courthouse at

Bishop Cannon Seeks Damages of Half Million

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(AP)—Bishop James J. Cannon, Jr., filed suit in the District of Columbia supreme court today against Representative Tinkham, republican, Massachusetts, for $500,000 for alleged libel.

Cannon based his charges on the charges Tinkham made in connection with his 1928 anti-Smith campaign activities.

The Southern Methodist bishop alleged Tinkham had written and caused to be published, June 19, 1930, an article charging him with violating the federal corrupt practices act.

The article, the bishop's suit said, accused him of failing to account for $48,304 of a fund of $65,300 received from E. C. Jamieson, a New York capitalist, for use in opposing the candidacy of former Governor Smith for the presidency.

Bishop Cannon's brief said he had always complied with all laws in all activities in which he was concerned, including the 1928 election, and had only refused to subject himself to unjust and unscrupulous attacks.

His brief said he had been grossly injured in his good name and fame as a citizen, churchman and moral leader by the statements alleged to have been made by Tinkham in the newspaper article. He asked $250,000 compensatory and the same amount as punitive damages.

taches and those who attend trials regularly are unanimously of the opinion that the trial was one of the bitterest and most hotly contested affairs ever seen in Corsicana.

Both the state and defense were allowed three and one-half hours for arguments.

Jury Charged Tuesday

Considerable time was spent Monday and Tuesday on the charge to the jury, and special charges prepared by the defense were read by District Judge Hawkins Scarborough, before whom the case was tried.

The court room was crowded from the time that the case was called for trial a week ago this morning through the arguments of the attorneys, and numerous spectators bringing their lunches and remaining in the courtroom during the two-hour recesses at noon in order to be certain of a seat when the afternoon sessions began.

The court room began filling rapidly at 8 o'clock each morning, an hour before court was taken up.

Defendant entered a plea of not guilty when he was arraigned. Caldwell did not testify.

Those constituting the jury which was completed last Thursday night at 6 o'clock are: Tom Pinkston, Corsicana; George Baum, merchant, Corsicana; J. D. Estes, farmer, Eureka; W. L. Garner, farmer, Chaffield; M. R. Shipp, farmer-merchant, Chaffield; Joe Sims, farmer, Roane; Willie Massey, farmer, Powell; Cullen Dunn, cotton, Corsicana; J. O. Burch, oil company employee, Mildred; Fredrick, farmer, Kerens; R. M. Smith, cotton man, Corsicana; J. B. Comer, oil lease manager, Whitten.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR CELEBRATION BRIDGE OPENING

TRINITY RIVER STRUCTURE EXPECTED BE READY FOR TRAFFIC JUNE 17

Machinery was set in motion Tuesday afternoon for the completion of final plans for celebrating the opening of the new highway bridge across the Trinity river on Highway 31 between Kerens and Trinidad, now rapidly nearing completion at a cost of approximately a quarter of a million dollars.

Tentative date for the opening has been set for June 17 and the exact date will be determined within the next few days after a conference between state highway department officials and the contractors.

Plans for the ceremony were started several weeks ago, and at a meeting held in Trinidad a few weeks ago, representatives of a number of towns gathered and named representatives for an executive committee which will have charge of the final arrangements.

E. M. Westbrook of Kerens is the general chairman, with W. C. Richards of Athens as the secretary, and W. O. Harwell of Corsicana as meeting of the executive committee in Corsicana Tuesday afternoon, various sub-committees were named for the opening events.

The formal opening will take place at 2:30 in the afternoon at the bridge, and the crowd will then move on to the grounds of the Texas Power & Light Company at Trinidad where the general program of entertainment will be carried out.

Invitations have been extended to Gov. Ross Sterling, all members of the state highway commission, high officials of the state highway department, and other state dignitaries to attend the program as guests of honor. Champions of commerce and cities between Waco and Shreveport and Texarkana have been invited to send representatives.

Will Furnish Band.

The offer of Joel C. Trimble, Corsicana bandmaster, to arrange for a band for the celebration, was gratefully accepted by the executive committee Thursday.

A fund of $250 will be raised to defray the expenses of the celebration, prorated among the participating cities. The following cities brought their quotas in cash to the meeting Tuesday afternoon: Kerens, $25; Malakoff, $25; Denton and Dr. L. W. Pulley, Trinidad, $50; Waco and Shreveport, $50; Texarkana, $50.

Payment of their quota of $50 shortly after noon Wednesday, and efforts were still being made to raise the Corsicana quota of $50 Wednesday afternoon.

The fund will be used to defray the cost of special speakers' stands, ice water, refreshments, comfort stations, and other incidental expenses.

Edens Heads Committee.

The entertainment committee for state officials and other guests is headed by J. N. Edens of Corsicana, assisted by R. T. Craig of Athens, Earle Seale of Kerens, and R. J. Jackson of Corsicana, and Tyler.

Program for the celebration will be arranged by a committee composed of Lowry Martin, E. M.

Remaining Portion Highway Bonds Will Be Offered For Sale

The remaining portion of the unsold bonds of Consolidated road district No. 1 which are to be advertised for sale to provide funds for the finishing of the road program in this district by the Navarro county commissioners court total $600,000, according to an announcement made by J. M. Tullos, county auditor, Wednesday morning.

Repairs to the courthouse mentioned by the commissioners earlier in the week will be the tearing up of the present walks about the building and the construction of new walks, at an estimated cost of $2,000.

W. E. Pugh Injured When Swings Falls

W. E. Pugh, long-time resident of Corsicana, was painfully injured Tuesday night at his home at the corner of Fifth avenue and Twelfth street when a chain holding up a porch swing broke, precipitating him to the porch floor and then to the ground several feet below. He was alone at the time of the accident and remained unconscious some little time before he was found.

He was painfully bruised and his neck wrenched by the fall and was running some temperature Wednesday, but no bones were broken and his physician expects no serious consequences to result from the accident.

Westbrook and Ted B. Ferguson. The publicity committee is composed of L. A. Wortham, Corsicana, chairman; Charlton Gunter, Corsicana; Louis J. Scholl, Malakoff; E. H. Erister, Kerens, and R. T. Craig, Athens.

Grounds committee is composed of S. W. Denton and Dr. L. W. Pulley of Trinidad, and W. P. Crews and R. M. Naughton of the Texas Power & Light company at Trinidad.

The completion of the new steel and concrete structure across the Trinity will mark the third spanning of the river in the space of a few decades. A tramway and ferry was the first means of crossing, followed by a frame structure in more recent days, and now succeeded by a modern structure high above the flood levels.

The executive committee is composed of the following representatives of towns near the bridge:

Athens, R. T. Craig; A. F. Wood and W. C. Richards; Corsicana, Ted B. Ferguson, Lowry Martin and W. O. Harwell; Kerens, E. M. Westbrook; Earle Seale, Henry Ross and R. D. Owens; Malakoff, A. L. Kirby, and W. L. Faulk; Trinidad, S. W. Denton and Dr. L. W. Pulley; Trinidad (Texas Power & Light Co.), W. P. Crews and E. M. Naughton.

HUGE CORPORATION TO TAKE OVER EAST TEXAS FIELD URGED

PRORATION ADVOCATE SAYS SITUATION DEMANDS SOME DRASTIC ACTION

DALLAS, June 3.—(AP)—Formation of a huge corporation to take over operation of the new East Texas oil field was urged today by Robert R. Penn of Dallas in addressing the production division of the American Petroleum Institute, in session here. Penn is vice president of the A. P. I., in charge of the production division, and member of the Texas state central proration committee.

His proposal was made after a group of leading oil men toured the new field yesterday.

While admitting that many obstacles lie in the way of such an undertaking, Penn asserted that something must be done immediately, since flooding of the market with East Texas oil "has depressed prices to such an extent that a daily loss of $900,000 is being suffered."

After warning that over-production has caused the present state of price depression in the industry, the speaker cited the field at Oklahoma City and the East Texas field as "example of wasteful and reckless extravagance and over-competition in the development of this great natural resource."

"Many of the failures which have been charged to proration are due to the fact that we have not really had proration but only a partial application," he said.

Penn expressed the opinion that "the East Texas field is going to include at least 120,000 productive acres and the very lowest production which can be estimated from that field is 12,500 barrels per acre. It may be the final total will run from 2,000,000,000 to 3,000,000,000 barrels of oil or even higher."

He said it was "only necessary to look at the map to realize the enviable geographical position of the new East Texas field."

Strategic Position
"So strategic is that position that East Texas oil need only be sold cheaply to force its entrance into any of the principal markets of the country. When one considers the number of pipelines now completed or being built into that field, as well as the railroad outlets and the numerous small

Building Permits For May Were Low

Ten permits totalling $11,875 were issued by the city engineer's department during the month of May, figures released today show. Included in the list was a permit for a Conoco gasoline station at the corner of Main street and Second avenue costing $6,000.

refineries that have sprung up in the area, there is no real hope for a permanent and fully effective solution of the East Texas situation by proration.

The East Texas field has depressed the price of the average barrel of crude oil at least 40 cents per barrel already. That means a loss of $900,000 per day on the average production of the country.

The industry and the public have endured long enough the unsufferable conditions now existing. These conditions are such that they can result only in the destruction of billions of dollars of property. Such a field as that in East Texas should, under proper operations, add at least $1,000,000,000 to the capital of the Southwest. Instead, it is being allowed to create billions in losses.

Only One Answer

"There can be only one answer. That is complete utilization of the East Texas field. The ideal system would be to form a huge corporation to take over all properties in the field and issue stocks or certificates or equity to the owners for their interests."

"The logical solution is a combination of two methods: First, form a corporation to be controlled by the independent operators. Such a corporation could agree with the larger companies, which own larger percentages of the field, to operate all of the properties jointly under management of the independent corporation."

Thus the corporation of the independent operators could handle the entire operating property, delivering the oil in agreed proportions to the various companies."

Huge Saving Predicted
Stock of this corporation he said would be listed on the New York exchange. Development of the proposal he predicted would result in a saving of possibly $60,000,000 in drilling costs through elimination of about 2,000 wells.

Penn was followed by Robert E. Hardwick, Fort Worth attorney, who asserted that treating the oil pool as a unit and operating it as such, irrespective of property lines, seemed the best method suggested thus far to effect real conservation and to protect property rights.

"Proration in retrospect" was discussed by Warner Clark, San Francisco. Technical papers were read by C. L. Shirley, Tulsa; W. C. Shuts and M. Bowman Thomas, Houston; H. N. Marsh and B. H. Robinson, Los Angeles.

FORMER PLAINVIEW DISTRICT JUDGE IS AUTO CRASH VICTIM

L. S. KINDER KILLED WHEN CAR STRIKES PARKED TRUCK TRAILER

PLAINVIEW, June 3.—(AP)—Former District Judge L. S. Kinder of Plainview was killed instantly last night near Melrose, N. M., when the automobile in which he was riding with Fred Lowe, Plainview, struck the trailer of a truck parked on the highway. Lowe was not seriously hurt.

Lowe said the truck and trailer were without lights and his machine struck the trailer in attempting to pass another car. Kinder's neck was broken. Two men were reported to have been sleeping in the truck when the crash occurred. An inquest was to be held this afternoon.

Kinder came to Plainview in 1889 and was active in development of this section. He served as the first district attorney and as first district judge in several West Texas counties.

Survivors are his widow and a brother, T. A. Kinder, Brownsville.

Legislators Touring East Texas Fields

HENDERSON, June 2.—(AP)—Ten Texas senators and representatives arrived in Henderson this morning from Austin on a tour of the East Texas oil fields studying the problem of oil conservation and the need for pipeline outlets. The group was headed by Senator J. C. E. Beck of El Paso. Representatives of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce met the official group at Arp and escorted them to Henderson, where they were guests at breakfast.

The party included Senators Carl Hardin, Stephenville, Pink Parrish, Lubbock, Nat Patton, Crockett, Walter Woodard, Coleman, Tom Pollard, Tyler, Margie Neal, Carthage; Representative Phil Sanders, Nacogdoches and Rep. E. H. Lassater, Henderson.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. J. T. Terry, who has been in the Navarro Clinic for the past seven weeks, has been removed to the home of her brother, W. R. Lowery, 402 W. First avenue, where she will spend a few days after which she will return to her home near Kerens. She wishes to thank her many friends for their thoughtfulness and kindness to her during her illness.
